JURIST'S LAWYERS ISSUE STATEMENT

Judge Archbald's Counsel Asks That Public Opinion Be Suspended

HAD NO CHANCE FOR DEFENSE

Judge Will Present His Side of Case to Senate, Which Body Will Hear Trial—Transactions Denied.

Washington, July 9.—Counsel for Judge Robert W. Archbald, of the Commerce Court, against whom articles of impeachment have been reported in the House, issued a statement today in the judge's behalf, asking that public opinion in his case be suspended until the accused jurist had had an opportunity to present his defense to the Senate, which sitting as a court, will try the charges against him. In part the statement says:

"Judge Archbald's counsel state that he emphatically denies that in any of the transactions which are referred to in the report of the Judiciary Committee, or which are embraced in the articles of impeachment which the committee has submitted to the House, he used or attempted to use his influence as a judge improperly.

"Conscious of his own integrity, it never occurred to him in any of the transactions referred to that others might suspect that he was acting otherwise than uprightly.

"When the original charges against him were presented to the President and the Attorney General, he was given no notice and had no hearing. In the proceedings before the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives he was permitted to be present and to cross examine the witnesses produced by the committee, but it was explicitly stated by the chairman of that committee that the proceeding was a hearing and not a trial. In the hearings before the committee the principal charges which had led the President and the Attorney General to take action were shown to be utterly unfounded. When the evidence before the committee was closed, it went into executive session and what charges it might make could not be known to Judge Archbald or his counsel until they were formulated and presented to the House.

"Judge Archbald, therefore, will have no opportunity to present his defense until he is summoned before the Senate, and until he has had a hearing there he asks that public opinion in his case may be suspended."

ENGINEER WAS DRUNK.

William Schroeder Intoxicated Four Hours Before Wreck.

Corning, N. Y., July 9.—That William Schroeder, engineer of the express train which ran into the rear end of Lackawanna passenger train No. 9, here, last Thursday, causing the death of 40 persons in the resulting wreck, was apparently intoxicated within four hours of the time he boarded the engine which he guided to destruction, was the testimony given at the coroner's inquest here today by Charles Klapproth, of Elmira, for many years a close personal friend of Schroeder. Klapproth testified that at 12:30 o'clock on the morning of July 4th, as he was leaving his place of business in Elmira, he saw Schroeder walking towards him staggering. He remarked to friends who were with him that Schroeder seemed intoxicated. Schroeder went on towards his home and Klapproth saw no more of him.

Engineer Schroeder, it was learned today, was late in reporting for duty on the day of the wreck. The train was held for him, and he started out without testing his engine.

OVER CHOWAN BRIDGE AGAIN.

Traffic on Structure Wrecked by Explosion Resumed.

Suffolk, Va., July 8.—The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company today resumed traffic over the Chowan river at Tunis, N. C., where last Friday morning the bridge, 260 feet long, together with depot, wharves, tank and other property belonging to the railroad company, were burned to the water's edge.

The loss is estimated at about $75,000. The fire originated from a gasoline explosion. A negro was drawing gasolene to fill a motorboat tank when he struck a match and the explosion blew two men overboard. They have not yet been found.

ACCUSED OF STABBING CHILD.

Italians Held for Murder of Little Girl Cut 40 Times.

New York, July 9.—Giovanni Grecl, who owns a coal and wood cellar near the vacant lot where 12-year-old Julia Connors was found yesterday, dying, with 40 stab wounds in her body, was arrested early today, charged with homicide.

Florence Molz, who identified Grecl as one of three men she says lured Julia and another girl into a cellar, was sent to the Children's Society to be held as a material witness. The child tells conflicting stories, however, and the police are far from a solution of the crime.

Washington, D. C., July 9.—Thomas Taggart, Indiana's Democratic leader, testified today before the Senate Campaign Expenditures Committee. Taggart was unable to remember much about the contributions to the Democratic campaign fund in 1908. From hearsay he expressed the belief that August Belmont, Thomas F. Ryan and Cord Meyer, New Yorkers, contributed. Taggart added that these were three among the thousands. The witness said that he contributed a thousand dollars. He estimated that the committee had twenty or thirty men soliciting funds throughout the State. Taggart said that when George F. Peabody resigned as treasurer, August Belmont succeeded him. "I don't know whether Peabody was disgusted or not," added Taggart.

DEATH ROLL LIKELY EIGHTY

Bodies of 69 Victims of Explosion In Colliery Recovered—Half of Those Died Trying to Rescue Comrades

Conisbrough, England, July 9.—The bodies of 69 victims of a series of explosions in the Cadeby colliery this morning have been brought to the surface. It is feared that a further search of the mine will increase the death roll to 80. Of the killed 30 were mine workers; the others were men who went into the pits to rescue those entombed. Among these are three government inspectors, including William Henry Pickering, chief inspector of mines. Yorkshire and North Midland district, who was to have explained to King George and Queen Mary this afternoon the working of another Yorkshire colliery.

The King yesterday visited a colliery adjacent to that in which the explosions occurred today. The presence of their majesties in the district greatly minimized the fatalities, because the miners were celebrating and had taken a holiday. Therefore, instead of the usual 136, only 32 men were working in that part of the mine where the accident happened. Thirty of these were killed outright, and one, the manager of the pit, was brought up alive, but died tonight.

The first explosion which killed the miners occurred early in the morning. It was followed by an explosion about five o'clock in the afternoon which resulted in the collapse of the roof, overwhelming the entire rescuing brigade.

The King and Queen visited the scene tonight and personally expressed their sympathy.

An accummulation of gas which was ignited by the firing of a shot is believed to have been the cause of the disaster.

A TOLL OF DEATH.

Seven Die in New York From Heat. Many Prastrated.

New York, July 9.—This city today sweltered under the hottest sun of the season thus far. Seven people died, 40 were prostrated and two were driven temporarily insane from the excessive heat in Greater New York. The mercury rose steadily from early morning until at 2 o'clock this afternoon the thermometer registered an official maximum for the day of 93 degrees. At 10 o'clock tonight the temperature was still hovering about the 83 degree mark. Some hope of relief was held out tonight by predictions of possible showers for tomorrow. People crowded by tens of thousands to the parks and other open spaces for relief tonight.

Philadelphia, July 9.—Six deaths, due to the heat, were reported here today and three other persons committed suicide. The maximum temperature reported by the weather bureau was 93 degrees at 4 P. M.

Norfolk, Va., July 9.—With every department or branch of the church represented, the Fifth Virginia Baptist Summer encampment began tonight at Virginia Beach. Upward of 1,000 delegates from all parts of the State are in attendance. Tonight's exercises consisted principally of a lecture by Dr. Lincoln Hulley, president of Stetson University, Deland, Fla., on "Tennyson's Beautiful Life and Message." The real work of the encampment will begin tomorrow.

MOVEMENT WAS ONLY A FLASH

Scheme to Petition Taft to Withdraw Falls Down—Congressman Rees Was Leader—Will Await Developments.

Washington, July 9.—The scheme of Republican Progressives in the House of Representatives to launch a fresh campaign against President Taft by means of a petition asking him to withdraw as the Republican nominee, proved to be a "flash in the pan" today.

When pinned down to it the members who had participated in the conferences which developed the idea hastily joined the "don't mention my name" club. Those who started the movement abandoned their efforts to show the participation of the regular Republicans in it and it was clearly apparent that there was little support forthcoming from that direction. Only one of the participants in the informal conferences, Representative Rollin R. Rees, of Kansas, publicly admitted his share in the proceedings. He admitted that he had a petition aimed at Mr. Taft and he made it public, coupled with the following statement:

"My scheme was to appeal to President Taft's patriotism and well known love for 'party solidarity'. To be successful my petition would necessarily have to be presented to him by those who were his political adherents at the time he sought the nomination. I had not thought that my own views or that of other Progressive members would make much impression on him, but it seemed to me that if those who really have his welfare at heart would urge the views upon him that I tried to set out in the petition he would take the step suggested or devise some other plan that would relieve the party from its present embarrassment. I did not intend that the press should get hold of this scheme until I had a fair opportunity to try it out, but since it has become known I prefer that a correct version be given. I had not proceeded far enough to solicit any signatures, but had submitted the plan to several colleagues for their suggestions."

The heading of Mr. Rees' petition recited the charges of fraudulent nomination against President Taft freely made by the supporters of Col. Roosevelt. It proceeded on a new tack, however, by asserting that whether the charges were false or true they nevertheless would have an effect in the election and, that in the minds of Progressive Republicans, they would result in the defeat of the Republican ticket.

The petition by Mr. Rees has not been adopted by the insurgents. While some of them were of the opinion today that premature publicity had killed the scheme, others thought differently and all concluded that it would be best to hold another conference when more insurgent leaders are in Washington.

Not one of the parties to the conference had any direct word from Senator Dixon, Mr. Roosevelt's campaign manager, as to his attitude. In the absence of word from him the insurgents were divided on the best method to pursue. Some believed in a conciliatory petition and others favored a bludgeon. All decided to await developments.

STATE COMMITTEE ELECTS C. A. WEBB

New Executive Head of Democratic Party in North Carolina

THE MEETING LAST NIGHT

Supplementary Rules for Senatorial Primary Adopted—Another Rumpus Over the Question Is Kicked Up

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 9.—The State Democratic Executive Committee tonight elected Hon. Chas. A. Webb, of Asheville, as State chairman, and re-elected W. E. Brock of Wadesboro, as secretary of the committee, both being by acclamation. The name of Mr. Webb was presented by Hon. Jno. C. Mills, of Rutherfordton, as a man eminently fitted for the place by past distinguished service as repeatedly district chairman and as State Senator and other public service.

In taking the chair, Mr. Webb expressed deep appreciation for the expression of confidence and the honor and he expressed the hope that he realized fully the great responsibility, declaring that in the conduct of the pending campaign the State Committee feels that it will have the hearty support of all loyal Democrats. He declared there is a glorious prospect of a great victory.

"Democratic candidates give universal satisfaction and the principles enunciated in the party platforms, State and National, have the enthusiastic approval of all Democrats, so that with a united harmonious Democracy and a divided opposition, we are sure to win," declared the new chairman.

Continuing Mr. Webb said, "The Democratic party in this State is in the overwhelming majority, and, speaking for the committee, it will be our purpose to perfect an organization that will insure the active co-operation of all the Democrats in the State, and secure an unprecedented majority at the election. We enter this campaign with the people with us; they have absolute confidence in our candidates and believe that they will carry out the policies set forth in our platforms. In the conduct of this campaign, the sole purpose and determination of the committee will be the welfare of the party and the election of all its nominees and secure the largest majority ever given the Democratic ticket."

The first business before the committee was the adoption of rules supplemental to those adopted by the State convention for the holding of the primaries for United States Senator at the General election. A set of rules was presented by T. D. Warren, of Newbern. They consisted of the rules adopted by the convention, setting out the general plans for the primaries to be on general election day, November 5th, and for a second primary on November 26th, in the event no candidate receives the majority of votes cast in the first primary. Then supplementary rules provided that county executive committees meet on the first Monday in October to ap-

OUTLINES

James B. Reynolds and Chas. D. Hilles were yesterday elected secretary and chairman respectively, of the Republican National Committee and the campaign for the re-election of President Taft will be formally launched today.

Counsel for Judge Archbald, of the Commerce Court, against whom articles of impeachment have been reported in the House, yesterday issued a statement asking the public to suspend opinion in his case until he has had an opportunity to present his defense to the Senate.

Governor Wilson was in conference yesterday afternoon with Samuel Gompers and other labor leaders. The Democratic platform was discussed and Mr. Gompers expressed himself as being perfectly satisfied with it.

The bodies of 69 victims of explosion in an English colliery yesterday were recovered and it is believed a further search of the mine will increase the death toll to 80.

The movement to petition Taft to withdraw as the Republican candidate was only a flash in the pan. Very few Senators or Representatives could be found yesterday who knew anything about the plans.

Yesterday was another big day at the Olympic games, the 400 meter relay race furnishing the greatest sensation of the meet.

The Democratic State Committee of North Carolina at Raleigh last night elected Hon. C. A. Webb, of Asheville, as chairman. The adoption of rules for the Senatorial primary next November provoked a heated discussion.

READY TO LAUNCH TAFT'S CAMPAIGN

President's Ship Under Reynolds and Hilles Sets Sail Today

BOTH SELECTED UNANIMOUSLY

James B. Reynolds Chosen Secretary and Hilles Chairman of National Committee—Meet in New York July 19th.

Washington, July 9.—The campaign for the re-election of President Taft will be formally launched tomorrow in New York. James B. Reynolds, of Massachusetts, who today was named as secretary of the Republican National Committee, will do the launching, and C. D. Hilles, President Taft's secretary, who was selected for chairman of the National Committee, will join him in New York Monday to help sail the political ship.

The sub-committee of the National Committee announced the selection of Mr. Hilles and Mr. Reynolds today after a half hour session with President Taft at the White House and a few minutes in conference in a down-town hotel. Both men were chosen unanimously. The members of the sub-committee expressed the belief that Republicans would find Hilles an admirable captain. President Taft was plainly pleased with the committee's choice, and members of his cabinet spoke of Mr. Hilles in high terms of praise.

The sub-committee adjourned until July 19th, when it will meet in New York. At that meeting it is probable that an advisory committee of five men and probably an executive committee of eight or 10 will be announced. Mr. Hilles and other leaders were hopeful tonight that the treasurer would be named at the next meeting.

Although many of the members of the sub-committee left Washington after the chairmanship was settled, several stayed long enough to have short conferences with the President and his newly elected campaign manager. They proceeded to organize Mr. Taft's campaign quite undisturbed by the report that a number of Progressive Republicans were going to circulate petitions to ask him to withdraw from the ticket. None of the committeemen regarded that movement seriously, in view of the fact that it was being proposed entirely by men who had lost out at Chicago. They admitted that the campaign would be bitterly fought, but among them there were many expressions of confidence in the re-election of Mr. Taft.

Mr. Hilles issued a statement tonight declaring the confidence of the Republican party in its cause and its candidates.

LORIMER SPEAKS TODAY.

Senator Will Close Defense and Vote Will be Taken.

Washington, July 9.—After an ineffectual attempt to conclude consideration of the case against William Lorimer, of Illinois, the Senate this afternoon recessed until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning to allow Mr. Lorimer an opportunity to close his own defense. Just before the day's session closed the Senate was on the verge of vote on the resolution declaring the Lorimer seat vacant, but an agreement was reached allowing further debate tomorrow.

Senator Dillingham, of Vermont, concluded his three-day speech in support of Senator Lorimer.

In concluding his speech defending Lorimer, Senator Dillingham attacked the "$100,000 slush fund" story of General Manager Funk, of the International Harvester Company. He said that this story had been known for some time before Funk made it public. He asserted that Funk's desire to keep it secret grew out of his fear of Lorimer's power as a Senator.

"This story was never used where it could be subjected to legal investigation," said Senator Dillingham; "it was never used except for the purpose of bringing death to William Lorimer."

WASHINGTON COUNTY IN LINE.

Maryland Democrats to Begin Campaign by Organizing Club.

Hagerstown, Md., July 9.—The Democratic campaign in Washington county will be begun here Wednesday with the organization of the Wilson, Marshall and Lewis Club.

John B. Sweeney, the chairman, has issued a call for a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee for Washington county tomorrow. Mr. Sweeney states that the duty of all Democrats is plain and there is no excuse on the part of any member of the party to seek any alignment other than that laid down by the Baltimore Convention, both as to candidate and platform. He says the convention fairly represented the Democratic party and that its work is accepted with unanimity by the members of the party in Washington county.

Chihuahua, July 9.—Faliciana Dominiguez, who bore the rank of lieutenant colonel among Orozco's forces, has sent from Santa Isabel to Gen. Huerta, commander of the Federal forces, an offer to surrender with 500 men, if given amnesty. Gen. Huerta has agreed.

CHARLES D. HILLES,

Secretary to the President, who was chosen yesterday to head the Republican National Committee.

FOUR DEAD AND SEVEN DYING

Eighteen Other Persons Are Critically Ill as Result of Eating Poisoned Meat—All Members of Canady Family

Augusta, Ga., July 9.—Four persons are dead, seven are declared by physicians to be in a dying condition and 18 others are critically ill as the result of eating what is supposed to have been poisoned meat at a reunion of the Canady family at the home of Mack Canady near Garfield, Ga., on July 4th. The dead are:

H. Tillman Canady.

Henry Covena, of Wesley, Ga.

Mrs. Faircloth, a daughter of Mack Canady.

Child of Mrs. Faircloth.

Tonight appeal was made to the city hospital in Augusta for aid and all available trained nurses were sent to Garfield by the first train. Forty-five persons are said to have been poisoned, all of them being members of the Canady family. The poisoning is said to have resulted from mixing a seasoning containing pepper and vinegar in a zinc tub and using it on barbecued meat.

Augusta, Ga., July 9.—Three persons are dead and 37 others are ill as a result of eating poisoned food at a dinner at the home of Mack Canady, near Garfield, Ga., on the Fourth of July, according to information that reached here tonight. Much mystery surrounds the wholesale poisoning of the Canady family, who had gathered at a reunion.

All of the victims are members of the Canady family.

Tillman Canady, one of the brothers, died Saturday and Mrs. Faircloth, a daughter of Mack Canady and one of her children, died yesterday. Thirteen members of the family of Mack Canady are seriously ill, while Ben Canady is in a critical condition. Every member of the latter's family is sick.

Every person who partook of the dinner is suffering from eating poisoned food and some of them are said to have but slight chances for recovery. Others, while ill, are not considered to be desperately sick. A complete investigation will be made to determine whether the victims ate tainted food, and are suffering from ptomaine poisoning, or whether a poison was placed in the food by design.

WAKE BLIND TIGERS.

Judge Ferguson Waking Them Up at Raleigh—A. & M. Affairs.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 9.—Judge Ferguson, of the Superior Court, has waded into the hearing of numbers of the numerous "blind tiger" cases that are scheduled for trial at this term of the court. Today he imposed a fine of $200 and costs on Tom Morris and a fine of $100 and costs on Henry Sorrel, two white men, who came into court and pleaded that while they would not admit guilt and the evidence against them was false, the witnesses against them were such that they preferred submitting and paying heavy fines to risking a trial that might result in convictions and road sentences. A definite understanding has been reached in these prosecutions that those who submit without trial and give bond for future good behavior shall be let off with fines, and that those who risk trial and are convicted will get sentences to the roads. There are twenty odd cases for selling whiskey scheduled for trial this week, but it looks like there will be very few of them presented to juries.

M. B. Stickley, Concord; W. B. Cooper, Wilmington, and O. L. Clark, of Bladen county, are here as members of the board of directors of the A. & M. College, to make the regular examination of the books of the college. They say they find the affairs of the college are in fine shape.

Lake Charles, La., July 9.—The grand jury has been ordered to convene in special session next Monday to consider the riot last Sunday at Grabow between union and non-union sawmill workers, in connection with which 10 men are held in jail here, eight charged with murder and two with having incited a riot. No further outbreak has occurred since Sunday and last night. Upon the advice of Sheriff Read, State troops were withdrawn. Two companies had been on the scene.

LABOR OFFICIALS CALL ON WILSON

Gompers Discusses Democratic Platform With Party's Nominee

THINKS IT FILLS THE BILL

President of American Federation of Labor Says It Meets Requirements—Will Now Report to His Colleagues.

Trenton, N. J., July 9.—Governor Woodrow Wilson was in conference for more than an hour this afternoon with Samuel Gompers and other officials of the American Federation of Labor. After the meeting Gompers said:

"We discussed with the Governor the platform adopted by the Baltimore convention and expressed ourselves as being in entire approval with the planks which apply to legislation and principles affecting the rights of the working people of the United States.

"I think the platform goes as far as a great political party can declare under present industrial and political conditions—that is, with any degree of assurance of being enacted into law."

Gompers said no other questions in the platform were discussed and when asked what particular phases were considered, said:

"We discussed that part of the platform which applies to the issuances of injunctions and contempt proceedings growing out of the abuse of the writ.

"We also discussed the declaration that voluntary associations of workingmen should not properly come under the provisions of the Sherman anti-trust law, as being in illegal restraint of trade, but should be treated as associations of men and women dealing in no product, and not organized for profit.

"We also discussed the declaration in regard to the proper manning of vessels and the abolition of involuntary servitude for seamen."

Mr. Gompers said that he and his colleagues were acting as "envoys of the American laboring men." When he was asked whether the Federation of Labor will support the Democratic ticket, he said:

"We are going to report to our colleagues and they will make a declaration or authorize us to make it."

He also was asked whether President Taft and former President Roosevelt would also be interviewed, and replied that he "did not know."

He described the Republican platform as "a magnificent piece of literary production and punctuation, but insofar as it affects the working people and their rights, it is conspicuously lacking."

In addition to Gompers the American Federation was represented at the conference by Frank Morrison, secretary; Dennis Hayes, vice president; William J. Spencer, secretary of the Building Trades Department; A. J. Barres, secretary of the Metal Trades Department, and John Moffitt, Arthur Holden and M. G. Hamilton, members of the legislative committee. Representatives Hughes, of New Jersey, who has fathered much labor legislation, was also present.

STRIKING TESTIMONY.

Alienist Admits Thaw Might Kill Again if Released.

White Plains, N. Y., July 9.—The most striking testimony brought out today in the Harry K. Thaw insanity hearing here was given by Dr. John W. Russell, head of the Mattewan insane asylum, who admitted under pressure that Thaw, if released from that institution and allowed to return to his former mode of living, might kill another person. Dr. Russell said, however, that he thought Thaw could safely be released in custody of a special attendant.

Dr. Adolph Meyer, one of the Thaw alienists, testified that Thaw, in his opinion, was never of unsound mind.

"Then you think he was a murderer when he shot White?" William T. Jerome, attorney for the State, asked.

"I do," was the answer.

The witness said that none of Thaw's acts or writings evidenced paranoia or even constitutional inferiority. The codicil of Thaw's will, which three alienists swore indicated paranoia, Dr. Meyer said, "showed no abnormality."

It is believed that the case will close this week.

PRELIMINARY ARRANGEMENTS

Col. Roosevelt Holds Conference About Third Party

Oyster Bay, July 9.—Preliminary arrangements of the third party movement in New York State were made today by Colonel Roosevelt in conference with William H. Hotchkiss, the newly appointed State manager; Timothy L. Woodruff and a number of up-State men who have cast their fortunes with the former President. Colonel Roosevelt met them in New York where he spent the day. He said there was nothing he could say at present as to the prospects and that he felt it would be foolish to attempt any prophecies now.

MAY CANCEL STOCK MILLIONS.

Vice Chancellor Says Havemeyer Got It Without Consideration.

Trenton, N. J., July 9.—Vice Chancellor Stevens, in an opinion filed in the Court of Chancery today in the suit of Norman D. Hooker and others against the executor and heirs of Henry O. Havemeyer, holds $10,000,000 worth of stock of the National Sugar Refining Company was issued to Havemeyer without consideration.

The vice chancellor asks for further argument by counsel before making a decree to carry out the effect of his decision and suggests different ways in which the decree might be made.

Havemeyer came by this stock at a time when James H. Post, representing him, acquired the stock of the New York Sugar Refining Company, the National Sugar Refining Company and the Mollenhauer Sugar Refining Company for $8,250,000, and consolidated the companies into the National Sugar Refining Company with an authorized capital of $20,000,000.

It was claimed on behalf of the defendants in the suit decided today that the acquisition of the three companies and the combining of them into one gave them a value far in excess of what was paid for the companies acquired individually.

The vice chancellor held that under the circumstances surrounding the purchase and organization of the new company this added value, if any, could not be capitalized to Havemeyer's benefit.

One of the questions left open to be decided upon after a hearing is as to whether this $10,000,000 of stock is to be continued in existence and paid for by the Havemeyer estate or canceled entirely.

A pure food investigation by Dr. Carlo Formenti ,of Milan, has dealt with poisonous metals in food supplies. SHORT SESSION HELD.

Friel Allen Testifies in Trial of Outlaw.

Wytheville, Va., July 9.—Friel Allen, the 19-year-old member of the Allen clan that shot up the Hillsville court house, and a nephew of Sidna Allen, who is yet at large, testified today in the trial of Claude Allen, the alleged murderer of Sheriff L. F. Webb. He swore he saw Clark Dexter Goad shoot and was then knocked down by the terror-stricken crowd. When he arose he said he saw Commonwealth Attorney Foster with a pistol and heard him exclaim, "I will shoot you," speaking to Friel. The witness said he then drew his own weapon and fired twice at Foster after the latter had shot at him.

The witness, together with Floyd Allen, who is now under sentence of death as the murderer of Foster, Sidna Edwards, and Victor Allen, who are yet to be tried, were brought here today from the Roanoke jail to testify for the defense.

Besides Friel Allen, Victor Allen was also examined though nothing new was brought out. He shows the effects of his long confinement and was taken sick on the witness stand today, though applications of ice soon restored him.

Court was in session only one hour this morning due to the absence of witnesses.

BIG DAY AT OLYMPIC GAMES

The 400-Metre Relay Race Furnishes Sensation, England and Germany Finishing Close—Finns Win Javelin Contest

Stockholm, July 9.—In the Olympic today the 400-metre relay flat race proved a sensation. Great Britain and Germany finished so close that it looked like a dead heat. The Englishman Applegarth, undoubtedly was a few inches ahead, but the committee felt compelled to disqualify the German team, as they did the American team yesterday.

The Finns won the javelin contest in one, two, three order. Not only did the Finns have the satisfaction of being the only people except the Americans so far to fly their colors for a triple victory, but they succeeded in breaking two world's records.

The Finns would like to compete as an independent nation, as would also the Hungarians, but the international committee has decided that as they have no flag of their own the best that could be done was to raise three Russian flags with pennants displaying the word, "Finland" beneath them.

Seven preliminary heats in the 1,500-metres flat race furnished good exhibitions. Seven Americans, Shepard, Madeira, Taber, Kiviat, Jones, Hedlundand and McClure qualified for the final, totalling up one-half the number of runners who will compete, which would seem to any nation rather an honorable representation.

The most interesting feature of these heats was the contest between the Oxonian Jackson and Cornell's fast man, John Paul Jones. Jackson won with apparent ease and seems to be the perfection of a running machine.

The Frenchman Bouin, who gave the cleanest and easiest exhibition of the distance running yet seen at the Olympic, is likely to make a great battle of it with Kohlemainen in the final heat of the 5,000 metres. George V. Bonhag, Irish-American Athletic Club, and Louis Scott, of the South Patterson Y. M. C. A., who finished first in the first and second heats, respectively, are also to be reckoned with in this event.

In the last heat of the 5,000 metres the American, W. M. McCurdy, made a brave but futile attempt to win.

The committee arranged a compromise in the matter of the semi-finals of the 100-metres swimming competition which all accepted in a sportsmanship spirit.

The Americans by a misunderstanding had failed to appear for the semi-finals of this event, which were contested Sunday. The international jury decided this morning that an extra heat consisting of the three Americans, "Duke" Kahanamoku, Kenneth Huszagh, Chicago A. A., and Perry McGillivray, Illinois A. C., and Massa, of Italy, should be swum this evening and if they beat the arbitrary standard of one minute six and one-fifth seconds, the first two men should qualify for the final.

The Hawaiian Kahanamoku was easily first in one minute 2 2-5 seconds, which equals the world's record which he made in winning his trial heat. He led all the way. Huszagh beat McGillivray by a few feet and qualified for the final.

The great interest in the meeting tomorrow centers in the 200-metres dash, when the American sprinters will meet the hope of the Englishmen, Applegarth.

Harry J. Hebner, the American swimmer, won the first heat of the 100 metres, back stroke, in one minute and 21 seconds, the fastest time in any of the heats.

CONTRACT FOR NEW BUILDING.

Mr. Joe Schad to Build Structure for Mr. Geo. W. Huggins.

Mr. Joe Schad, the well known contractor, has been awarded the contract for the erection of the handsome new three-story brick store building Mr. Geo. W. Huggins is to build on Market, between Front and Second streets, and he expects to begin work so as to have the building ready for occupancy by November 1st. The first floor will be used by Mr. Huggins for his jewelry business. Plans for the structure were prepared by Mr. Jos. F. Leitner, the architect. The front will be of terra cotta brick and stone trimmings.

Mr. Schad has also recently been awarded the contract for improvements to be made at the United States Marine Hospital. The contract includes the erection of an ornamental fence extending entirely around the hospital reservation, embracing an area of several blocks. Besides he is to do considerable interior work, under the contract, which totals about $5,000.

MORMONS TO MEET REBELS.

Colonies Will Refuse to Give More Food and Horses.

Agua Prieta, Sonora, July 9.—Americans of the Mormon colonies at Colonia Morelos and Colonia Oaxaca, 75 miles southeast of here, are mobilizing to defend their property against the rebel bands. The rebel advance guard from Casas Grandes is approaching Colonia Morelos today.

The Mormons declare they will no longer contribute food or horses to the forces of Orozco. Nine Mormons have been killed by rebels since the revolution began, five months ago. Concentration of rebel forces in this region has terrorized the Mormon colonists, which have appealed to Washington, through Senator Smoot, of Utah, for vigorous representations from the United States.

Gen. Augustin Sanjines, commander-in-chief of the Government forces in the State of Sonora, retired today to Cienegas, 20 miles northwest of Colonia Morelos, and is preparing to attack the rebel troops in the mountains.

EIGHT HOUR LAW EXTENDED.

Attorney General Applies It to Every Government Laborer.

Washington, July 8.—Attorney General Wickersham has rendered an opinion which will extend the eight-hour labor law to every mechanic and laborer employed by the United States.

Previous interpretations of the law confined its operation mainly to "public works," such as fortifications, buildings, etc. The question was raised in connection with the 1,000 laborers at customs ports.

..Theatrical..

To be inoculated with the serum of delight, whereby that dismal mental feeling and that uncomfortable hot feeling, this kind of weather, will be positively prevented, why all necessary is to go to the New Bijou. There is found joy unadulterated and where brightness is shed into every heart.

Not only does this amusement palace offer big entertainment, but the surroundings are those of solid comfort, because there is the freest kind of ventilating and the interior is always swept by cool breezes, coming from scores of new modeled electric fans. So it can well and quickly be seen that the New Bijou is the delightfully comfortable joy spot of Wilmington.

Today's bill is going to offer something superb in the way of dramatic films especially, though the comedy photoplays will be of the best type; vigorous for laughs and wholesome in theme.

A great Biograph is one of today's stars. It is "Man's Lust for Gold" and it tells a rugged, thrilling story of what a man will do when the craze for the yellow ore whirls in his brain, but the moral, at the end, is a grand one, and so a fine lesson is really taught.

Pathe's freshest and best is also on today in "The Texas Twins". It tells an interesting love story, with a great climax, when the athletic twin is mistaken for his brother, who has been maltreated, and the twin proceeds to clean up an entire ranch in lively fashion. It is a big piece of novelty work.

At the Grand Theatre

The heated period has no terrors for patrons of the popular Grand Theatre. The house is kept delightfully cool and pleasant by numerous electric fans and the ventilation gives a Wrightsville Beach effect in cooling breezes. It makes no difference how torrid the weather becomes on the outside, it is always delightfully pleasant inside the Grand and if you care for nothing else, just drop in and cool off.

For today in moving pictures the special offering will be comedy of the most brilliant type. The topliner will be "Mr. Bughouse is Cured." This film will hold the spectator in paroxysms of mirth and hearty laughs from beginning to end. Then in addition there will be two other great films that will amuse, entertain and instruct the hundreds of well-pleased patrons who flock to the Grand Theatre each afternoon and evening. The music is good, the pictures are unsurpassed, the house is delightful, so why not come?

New York, July 9.—The first Woodrow Wilson Club in New York State has received its certificate of incorporation from the Supreme Court here. It is officially known as the "Downtown Wilson Club." and will have its headquarters on Broadway, near the city hall. Its purpose as outlined in its application to the court is "the furtherance of the candidacy of Governor Wilson for President and the advocacy of those political principles for which he stands."

Profits Doubled With The Benthall Peanut Picker!

If you grow peanuts and do not use a Benthall Peanut Picker, you actually lose money by not owning one.

The Benthall makes peanut growing doubly profitable.

The wages you pay—the losses from delays in not getting your crop early to market—the losses from birds and stealing—cost you more than a machine.

If you own a Benthall, you and your boys can do the work of a hundred hands, and do it better. You send your crop to market early—secure highest prices. You stop the theft of your crop.

Growers now see that hand picking is far too costly.

The folly of attemping to "thresh" them has been plainly shown.

For machines that "thresh" them destroy profits.

They crack the nuts—and cracked nuts will not keep.

They grind the vines to smithereens—and these vines are the equal of alfalfa for feed—worth from $12 to $20 per ton.

Contrast such machines with the Benthall.

The vines are fed to the Benthall just as grain to the treshing machine.

The peanuts are pulled off the vine without injury to the shell. The machine picks as delicately as human fingers—hundreds of times more rapidly.

Many buyers give preference to Benthall picked nuts.

The vines are saved in perfect condition for hay.

The recleaning and bagging attachment makes it unnecessary to run the peanuts over for seed the second time.

This is the picker of proved worth—proved out in the peanut fields of Virginia.

Either Spanish or Virginia varieties are picked equally as well.

It is mounted—ready to hitch—as you would a farm wagon. You can easily move it from place to place.

There are models suited for horse or engine power—machines that are made interchangeable.

Every year sees more farmers using the Benthall. It has supplanted all other methods in many sections. And the demand this year promises to be greater than we can supply.

THE MACHINE THAT PAYS FOR ITSELF.

If you don't want to let profits slip thru your fingers—if you want to make money growing peanuts, write us for our folder "How the Benthall Pays For Itself." Sent Free upon request.

BROADWAY TO LILLINGTON

New State Railroad With Probable Extension to Goldsboro—Two Wilmington Enterprises Chartered

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 9.—State Senator J. R. Baggett, here from Lillington ,says fine progress is being made in the construction of the railroad from Broadway to Lillington, a distance of 16 miles and that the trains are to be running into Lillington on this line by October 1st.

Five miles of the road are already completed. This road is being constructed through the efforts of W. J. Edwards, of Lillington, who is now perfecting financial arrangements to continue the road from Lillington to Goldsboro, a distance of 40 miles through a fine and undeveloped country. Prior to the purchase of the Raleigh & Southport by the Norfolk Southern for the Raleigh, Charlotte & Southern division of the system, President Mills, of the Raleigh & Southport, made a stiff fight against the building of the Broadway-Lillington road that Edwards was pushing, but as soon as the Mills road was taken over by the Norfolk Southern all opposition to the road Edwards was financing was withdrawn and he is said to have the support assured for not only the Broadway-Lillington line, but also for the Lillington-Goldsboro extension.

Charter was granted today for the Hamilton Trust Co., of Wilmington, capital $150,000 authorized and $3,000 subscribed for erecting and operating an apartment house. The incorporators are. A. O. Schuster, J. W. Powell and K. C. Sidbury. The Hanover Realty Co., of Wilmington, is also chartered with $100.000 capital by L. J. Carter, D. B. Leonard and others. Also for the J. C. Ray Drug Co., of Whitakers, Edgecombe county, capital $5,000 by J. C. Ray and others; and for the Onslow Publishing Co., of Jacksonville, capital $10,000 by J. P. W. Little, Randolph Duffy and N. E. Ray who subscribed $800 capital.

Commissioner of Labor and Printing M. L. Shipman has just issued to all the industrial plants and newspapers of the State his annual calls for reports of the proportions of their plants in preparation for the 1912 report of the department which reflects the industrial activities and conditions of the State. The commissioner says the reports are coming in very promptly from many of the plants.

The management of Meredith College, the splendid Baptist institution here for the education of girls, announces the complete success of the campaign that has so stirred the Baptists of the State during the past 18 months to raise an endowment fund of $100,000 in order to procure from the General Education Board an additional $50,000. The campaign has also resulted in raising an additional $14,000 to pay an indebtedness.

Material extensions of the college capacity and equipment are being planned for immediate execution, these to include additional buildings.

A special commission is hearing evidence as to the damage that the Boylan Heights Development Co., is sustaining through the construction of the Raleigh, Charlotte & Southern link between the Norfolk Southern and Raleigh & Southport railroads here, the new line running through the Boylan Heights property. The railroad company is insisting that the damage sustained is not over $1,500 and the land company is demanding $50,000 damages. About all the other condemnation proceedings growing out of the running of this railroad link through important suburban sections of the city have been settled and the grading of the road is well advanced.

In connection with the term of the Wake Superior Court that is in progress this week, Judge G. S. Ferguson presiding, there are to be trials of eighteen blind tiger cases that have been appealed from the city police court mostly. They are cases in which fines and imprisonment sentences have been imposed. Wake county juries have not made a record in past terms that makes convictions overly probable and the temper of the present juries is being awaited with keen interest. The Raleigh Law and Order League has employed prominent lawyers to aid Solicitor Norris in the prosecution.

Raleigh is having another shake-up on the question of Sunday observance, this time the issue being the running of the amusements in the new Bloomsbury park that has just been opened up by the Carolina Power & Light Co., with the attractions in the way of coaster, merry-go-round, dancing pavilion and other things leased to a stock company. These amusements have been running "wide open" Sundays since the park was opened three weeks ago and some are insisting that they must not be operated. Stickers for Sunday observance to the limit of the law are declaring that if the park people persist there will be early and persistent arrests under the State Sabbath observance laws. The park is out in the country three miles.

TWO GIRLS DROWNED

Parents of One of Victims Narrowly Escaped Same Fate

Annapolis, Md., July 9.—Two young girls were drowned and the parents of one of the victims narrowly escaped the same fate while bathing at River View, South river today. The victims were:

Alma Arthur, 17 years old, of Baltimore.

Nellie Miner, 15 years old, of Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Arthur, parents of Miss Arthur, were pulled out of the water as they were disappearing for the last time.

What Makes a Woman?

One hundred and twenty pounds, more or less, of bone and muscle don't make a woman. It's a good foundation. Put into it health and strength and she may rule a kingdom. But that's just what Electric Bitters gives her. Thousands bless them for overcoming fainting and dizzy spells and for dispelling weakness, nervousness, backache and tired, listless, worn out feeling. "Electric Bitters have done me a world of good," writes Eliza Pool, Depew, Okla., "and I thank you, with all my heart, for making such a good medicine." Only 50c. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

MOUNTAIN TRAVELS.

Col. Pearsall Describes Some Beauties of Land of the Sky.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Murphy, N. C., July 6.—We are en route to Asheville. The first old overshot mill seen for years grinds corn by the old mill wheel. At "Stump," a phantom station, is a flume from the top of the mountain to bring logs to a saw mill. The prettiest town on this line is Andrews, named for the vice president of the Southern Railway. It is a level plateau, surrounded by the everlasting hills and appears that no breeze could blow through it owing to being surrounded as it is. Large lumber mills and a tannery that is right at the oak, chestnut and hemlock growth essential for making leather. We are now preparing to enter a tunnel. Lamps are lit. "Rhodo" with the mountain sides bedecked with laurel is being passed. This is a famous place for cauliflower, where it atains perfection.

At Topton is as near the summit of the valley mountains as we get. The grade is down and the squeaking of the car wheels against the sides of the rails. The car tracks are a perfect letter "S" all the day down the mountain.

Now we are at the Nantahala river. The Southern for miles runs by the picturesque stream. At Hewett's we find a tall mountain which supplies an immense plant for the manufacture of toilet preparations. We are passing a ginseng bed under a bush arbor on the banks of the river. A fellow passenger tells me he gets $9 per pound. Sometimes a good plant wil give 1 1-2 pounds, but the average is five or six plants to the pound.

There is no wonder the Indians love their country and its native wild. "Natahala, Nymph of Beauty"; I would woo thee in my rhyme."

On Tibeco mountain there is a large park of 15,000 acres under wire fence in which are enclosed herds of elk, the buffalo, the grizzly, black and cinnamon bear. There are also growing wild turkeys, pheasants. Droves of sheep are bought and turned loose a few at the time for the beasts to forage upon. There are some 15 or 20 keepers to mind this park and it is owned by an Englishman. The rangers tell me they go several days with only the cover of a tent.

We are now on the Tennessee river. On its rugged bosom there are no steam nor gasolene craft. An occasional canoe with a lone fisheman angling for bass and trout is rarely seen. There are rock walls on this river placed by nature that have a striking resemblance to man.

We are just passing Cherokee camp of the Boy Scouts. They seem to be having a good time. Lawn tennis and all kinds of games, including baseball, of course. They are camped on a delightful bend of the Tuckaseege—no doubt they swim a plenty. So far as fishing goes, there's nothing doing. Near Bryson City the farms on this railroads are small, many of them not exceeding 10 acres. Mountain and arable lands, a 20-acre farm is a large one.

But the lands are intensively cultivated; always pumpkins and beans growing among the corn. Many of these small holdings are where on the railroad side the wood has been cut off for tannery extract. The apple always follows the foot of man. It is surprising that raising honey is neglected. The crop of honey dew is said to be extraordinarily large this season.

NEWS FROM CAMP GLENN

Second Regiment Down to Hard Work —Notes of Encampment

Camp Glenn, Morehead City, N. C., July 9.—The Second Regiment is now down to fine work. Guard mount this morning could not be excelled. Dress parade Saturday was excellent. Col. Metts is to be congratulated upon the splendid manner in which the camp is being conducted. He ought to be the next colonel of the regiment.

Citizens here say the men of the Second Regiment are conducting themselves in a gentlemanly manner. The guard house has not had a boarder thus far.

The little city of Kinston has the finest band in the State and the regiment is very proud of it. Kinston also has one company and a hospital corps that can't be beaten.

Sergeant Jones. Co. E, Goldsboro, having made 137 out of a possible 150 at the range here in 1911, was presented during this encampment by Col. Metts with a gold metal.

Adjutant General R. L. Leinster is a welcome visitor in camp. Mrs. Leinster and child, who have been at the Atlantic Hotel, have returned home. The general will review the troops this afternoon.

The lawyers have all returned home after attending the Bar Association meeting. T. W. Davis, Esq., of Wilmington, was unanimously re-elected secretary. The lawyers had a great session, the visitors having enjoyed the visit of Sneator Bailey, of Texas, and the annual banquet which was a pronounced feature.

Morehead City's fire department is working hard every day as they are going to Fayetteville for the tournament and will make an effort to get tournament at Morehead next year

General Passenger Agent W. W. Croxton, of the Norfolk Southern, was a welcome visitor in camp this week. He is a fine fellow and one of the most popular railroad men in the State.

One of the most popular men in the State as well as in camp is Gen. T. R. Robertson, of Raleigh, Ordnance Department. He always has a pleasant word and a smile upon his face for the men. The boys look to the general for their clothes and shoes.

The Second Regiment consists of the following companies: Co. A, Tarboro; Co. B, Kinston; Co. C, Rocky Mount; Co. D, and Co. E, Goldsboro; Co. F, Capt. Paul Watson, Fayetteville; Co. G, Washington; Co. H, Clinton. Our next Major comes from Clinton, Co. F; Co. I, Edenton; Co. K, Wilson; Co. L, Lumber Bridge, crack shot company; Co. M, Dunn, the baby company.

Lieut. Col. Bizzell, Ordnance Officer, has his hands full at the rifle range. He has a fine assistant in Capt. Cogen.

The camp heard with regret of the death of the infant of Maj. Rodman, which occurred at Beaufort, the remains being taken to Washington, N. C., for interment.

Sunday was a big day over on the beach. But give us Wrightsville Beach where one doesn't have to walk a mile from the landing to the beach in the hot sun.

TEXANS WILL WAIT

Progressive Will Defer Affiliation With Third Party

Dallas, Texas, July 9.—The so-called "Progressive" wing of the Republican party in Texas will defer affiliation with the third party and will take no other decisive action until after the National convention of "Progressives" held in Chicago in August. However, a delegation of 100 will be named to attend the Chicago gathering and watch the progress of events.

This was decided at a conference of State Progressive Republican leaders held in Dallas today. The call for the caucus was issued by Colonel Cecil Lyon, former National committeeman and in behalf of the delegation of Roosevelt supporters who lost in their contest for seats at the Republican National Convention. An address to the people of Texas was framed at today's meeting urging that the "Progressive" Republicans endeavor to have control of the State convention to be held next month and asking that Democrats of progressive ideas refrain from participation in party primaries that they may be free to follow the course mapped out at the Chicago assembly.

A committee of five was named to select the delegation to attend the Chicago convention.

WRIT OF ERROR ALLOWED

U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals Will Review Chaloner Case

New York, July 9.—Judge Hand, of the Federal District Court, today allowed the writ of error asked for by John Armstrong Chaloner so as to bring his suit against Thomas T. Sherman, as a committee to the Chaloner estate before the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for review. Chaloner, by name of the suit, expected to gain possession of property placed in charge of Sherman by the State Supreme Court, as a result of insantly proceedings. Chaloner, who is a member of the Chaloner family, but changed his name, is incompetent by decision of the New York courts, but is held to be sane by the courts of Virginia, where he now lives. United States Judge Holt dismissed the suit last March, holding that the Federal Court was without jurisdiction and that to regain possession of his estate Chaloner would have to ask the State court to remove Sherman.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

Is Guaranteed by
ROBERT R. BELLAMY, Special Agt.

Nearly everyone has dandruff, and must reconcile themselves to the idea of becoming completely bald or resort to the use of Newbro's Herpicide.

The manufacturers have absolute faith in Herpicide to kill the germ and remove all traces of dandruff. So perfect is this belief that all dealers are instructed to sell the preparation with a "money back" agreement.

Such supreme confidence is the best evidence in the world of the merit of Herpicide. They know the result, hence the guarantee. It protects the purchaser.

Used as directed, Newbro's Herpicide kills the germ that causes dandruff and prevents the hair from coming out. It stops itching of the scalp, which is so disagreeable.

Wednesday, July 10, 1912.

Some of the insurgents have insurged.

There never could be such a thing as overproduction of the North Carolina ham.

Roosevelt proposes reforms, but offers no methods by which he can make his ideas effective.

The next Vice President is named T. R. Marshall, but the T. R. part of him does not stand for bull moose.

No doubt the Bull Moose will become the insignia of the Roosevelt party. It looks like a bull moose.

Progressivism is Democratic thunder, accompanied by a sufficient amount of lightning to strike down prejuidce.

It is announced that "the women of the country are leaning towards Wilson." Mrs. Wilson should not mind a little thing like that.

The burning question of the hour is how to kindle the enthusiasm of the voters over the all-fired political questions of the day.

The new lexicon of expletives will have to be enlarged so that it can embrace extracts from the speeches being delivered in South Carolina's Democratic primary.

"I am going to carry out my ideas," declares Col. Roosevelt. He ought to carry them out and gently deposit them on the junk heap.

Our idea of a militant Democrat is Senator Ollie James, who is not willing to concede that Taft will carry any more than five States.

Kansas had 18 tornadoes in eight days. A whirlwind campaign is about the only thing that would stand any showing in the cyclone State.

The young man who votes for the first time this year can realize his importance when it is stated that he can help save the Nation by voting for Woodrow Wilson.

The Republicans are scared and are looking for a compromise candidate to take the place of Taft and Roosevelt. However, Democrats should not forget that a scared horse runs like blazes.

South Carolina is installing an electric chair in the penitentiary for the purpose of electrocuting those convicted of capital offenses. It ought to have a sobering effect on the folks down there.

Governor Wilson will not be notified of his nomination till the 7th of August. In the meantime hundreds of people are rushing over to Seagirt to congratulate him before he gets the news officially confirmed. We congratulate the country.

Roosevelt says the Democratic party is wrong in pledging itself to enforce the Sherman anti-trust act. In order to make a further bid for support of all the trust magnates he should make a fight for the repeal of the Sherman act. Why have it if it is not to be enforced?

Col. Roosevelt says he is going to appeal to the farmers and wage workers of the country. The Colonel is going to do that because he needs their support and not necessarily because they need him in their business. Mr. George W. Perkins, one of the Colonel's financial backers, is from the Harvester Trust, and the farmers and the wage earners are from Missouri. The farmers and wage earners are not suckers.

REPUBLICAN COLD FEET

While the great majority of North Carolina Republicans enthusiastically fell in after Colonel Roosevelt prior to the Chicago convention, it was notable, if not significant, that North Carolina was one of the few States which did not identify itself with the call for the Progressive party convention to meet in Chicago on the 5th of August.

We could not very well understand why North Carolina Republicans, so overwhelmingly for Roosevelt before the Chicago convention, should appear to have gotten cold feet on the proposition to organize a third party, separate, distinct and independent of the Republican party. We do not quite understand it yet, but we attributed it to the lack of virile leadership, on the one hand, or to the hesitancy of North Carolina Republicans to renounce their old party affiliations without counting the cost. The average North Carolinian gets credit for going at a deliberate gait, and for showing no hasty sign of making a leap in the dark. He moves rather judiciously, as a general characteristic, and we presume that our Republican fellow Carolinians are also built that way.

That might account for the fact that North Carolina Republicans have been rather tardy about breaking out of ranks. Indeed, they have not yet shown any disposition to cut loose for good and burn their bridges behind them. That meeting of Roosevelt Republicans at Greensboro on Monday does not indicate any third party business. In fact, that "plan for concerted action regarding the course to be taken by the Republican organization in North Carolina" unmistakably indicates a frigidity of feet as to catching step with the third party movement as it assumed concrete form at Chicago a few days ago.

The foxy Mr. Butler attended the Greensboro conclave and conferred with the leaders of the Roosevelt organization. Some 30 prominent men were there and our diagnosis of the situation is that a bad case of Teddyitis was evident but very little third party fever. As a matter of fact, there was no large representation of the different portions of the State, and the affair simply resolved itself into a "conference" only. The sentiment prevailing was of the Ephraim order and we very plainly detect in it a disposition to cling to the old organization while putting up a fight for Roosevelt. The resolutions adopted bound the participants to the old organization and contemplate "regularity while voting for Roosevelt electors as against Taft electors."

All the action taken means that whereas the Republican organization in North Carolina is in the hands of Roosevelt men, it was recommended that the organization simply be captured bag and baggage for Roosevelt. If the organization puts up Roosevelt electors instead of Taft electors, it would force Taft electors to be run as independents or compel a reorganization of the party with a view of putting up regular electors in sympathy with the nominee of the Chicago convention.

The "conference" held at Greensboro ought to know that Republicans cannot, in any organized capacity, repudiate the nominee of the Chicago convention and yet retain their "regularity." They would be independents in fact and in law and would so be ruled out of the organization. The upshot of it would be that Taft Republicans would reorganize regularly under the party plans and run regular electors. Any others would be independent in fact and in law.

The Third Termers can not steal the organization and use it for a Presidential nominee who is heading a new party that is not the Republican party at all. They could just as well steal it for Woodrow Wilson and vote for Democrats, and hope to retain their "regularity."

The Roosevelt Republicans are trying to do something that cannot be done in accordance with party law, and The Star predicts right now that if Teddyism has to take the shape of a Third party it will have very few Tar Heel Republicans in it—not that they love Roosevelt less but that they love the G. O. P., too much to break out of the corral. Anyhow, "Thou shall not steal" the Republican organization. It would be monstrous to steal Republican livery in which to serve the Third party devil.

THE PRESS WITH WILSON.

Through the courtesy of an observant townsman, The Star today reproduces an editorial endorsement of Dr. Woodrow Wilson by the New York Times. It is a strong editorial, and it will be read with deep interest since it gives an unbased and comprehensve estimate of the Democracy's candidate for President. The manner of man who was nominated at Baltimore moves The Times to observe that "in the nomination of Woodrow Wilson the Democratic party regains its ancient estate of worth, of dignity, of power."

Much is said in these few words, but The Times article embraces more than a column of judicious estimate of the Baltimore nominee, whose nomination, it says, indicates that the Democratic party "escapes the thraldom of little men and ignoble leaders," and "it takes as its chief a man of that statesmanlike quality which befits the Presidential office."

An estimate equivalent to that was long ago placed upon Dr. Wilson by The Star. We happen to know the man and knew his father, but the best way to get the highest estimate of him is to read his books and great speeches, and to take note of his achievements as Governor of New Jersey. It is not alone in education and politics that our party's nominee has distinguished himself, but as a reformer, administrator and statesman. However, we commend a careful perusal of The Times editorial for a clear glimpse of the big man who has been nominated by our party. It is in keeping with the comment of the world's great paper, the London Times, which notes a new order of political intellectuality in the entrance of a scholar into the realm of politics of the larger kind.

Dr. Wilson is "different" as a candidate for President, and probably no nominee of any party has so generally received high commendation of the great papers of this country. The leading metropolitan and city dailies have spoken in a chorus, and their comments, if nothing else, would demonstrate the keenness and wisdom of the National convention in naming a man of the type of Wilson. These comments of the American press are numerous, but none were more accurate and pointed than the editorial from the New York Journal of Commerce, reproduced in The Star last Sunday.

When papers of the greatness and wide influence of The Journal of Commerce and The Times speak, something has been said. The Times is an independent paper which carries great weight in its editorial columns, and when it is considered that the Journal of Commerce is the greatest commercial and financial paper of this country, and strictly non-partisan in its political affiliations, its complimentary estimate of Wlson cannot be surpassed in its influence.

The citizen kind enough to forward the estimate of the New York papers referred to, says in this connection:

"I do not think that enough publicity has been given to Wilson's renunciation of his personal ambition in the interest of Democratic harmony, as per his message by telephone to his managers on Friday night of convention week, in which he released every delegate from his primary obligations of support. He is the only candidate who held that liberality of mind, and the disinteredness of purpose to take such a position should win the support of men who affect to look to merit only. This gentry will have the opportunity of proving their colors."

That one act of Wilson demonstrated unselfishness of the great kind and revealed in the nominee that deep and broad type that only can meet such a test. However, Dr. Wilson has revealed so many big traits that a book would be required for proper reference to them. One of the most conspicuous of those traits is his perfect frankness and deep sincerity, never more admirably displayed than when he refused to "straddle" on the fight made over the temporary chairmanship of the convention. It took a big man to meet that one test without the least equivocation or word of avoidance.

FIFTEEN CENTS COTTON

Again there is talk of a movement to set on foot a plan for marketing the cotton crop on a 15-cent basis. This time it seems to have been inaugurated by the Southern States Cotton Corporation, with headquarters at Macon, Ga. A conference is to be held in Atlanta next Friday, and reports received at hadquarters say it will be largely attended.

Governors Mann, of Virginia; Colquitt, of Texas, Brewer, of Mississippi, O'Neal, of Alabama, and Hooper, of Tennessee, have signified their intention of participating. Telegrams have been sent to 17 Governors urging their attendance. Sixty counties in Georgia will be represented, and a large Texas delegation is expected.

The movement seems to be one for a warehouse system, as different from the plan to curtail the acreage devoted to cotton. After all the campaign for curtailment, the government reports a reduction of less than 2 per cent. in the acreage. The plan for curtailment seems to have failed, and yet that is the only sure way to prevent over-production and prevent low prices. That is the way the cotton mills control prices. They curtail.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Referring to President Taft's ability to "get in wrong," the saying in Washington is, that if he should visit a penitentiary and have three hundred seats to select from, he would choose the electric chair.—Richmond Virginian.

The disgruntled Democratic friends of Champ Clark would seem to be very shortsighted in organizing Taft clubs in Missouri, in view of the fact that in order to be Speaker again Champ must first be reelected to Congress.—Washington Post.

Dr. Wiley, a lifelong Republican, has pledged his support to Gov. Wilson, and will take the stump for him. Of course, the wily Doc has not considered how sweet his revenge would be could be but return to the Department of Agriculture as Tama Jim Wilson's successor.—Washington Post.

Great was the rejoicing this morning when the standpat Taftites ascertained that Marion Butler had come down from Washington to direct the Roosevelt conference here today. They regard Butler as the greatest hoodoo ever and such has been his record ever since he tried to throw Jeter Pritchard over his head, but fell down in the effort. Wonder if Judge Adams took part in the conference and if he did, did he sit by Mary Ann?—Greensboro News.

"People are inclined to smile at praise of the daguerreotype of our grandfathers," said a photographer the other day, "but I want to say that the photograph of the present day is no improvement on it for artistic delicacy, for beauty and for quality. In subtlety of likeness, nothing ever has equaled the daguerrotype of 70 years ago, and those who possess any of them should treasure them as the choicest heirlooms. "Most styles move in cycles and it is the same with photographs. Many photographers are taking up the daguerreotype again. In view of the advance in photography, it is now possible to make daguerreotypes that are permanent, for the originals were wont to fade when exposed to light. That's why they were always kept in covered cases. "There is at least one very good reason for the daguerreotype being better, and that is that there is nothing but the camera lens between the subject and the picture, and the only loss is the reversal of the subject. Another thing is that the highly polished silver plate of the daguerreotype makes possible the greatest amount of detail, and the soft shadings, much of which is lost in photographs today by the rough surface of the emulsion on the negative, by the opaqueness of the glass in printing, and the unevenness of the paper."—New York Times.

SCORES PROSTRATED BY HEAT

No Relief from Hot Wave In Sight For New York

New York, July 8.—Weather which revived unpleasant memories of the terrible heat wave of just a year ago has struck New York and, according to the Weather Bureau, the city is likely to suffer for a considerable time. The mercury jumped today to 93 degrees (official) at 3 o'clock, and some street thermometers recorded it as 98 degrees.

The humidity was excessive and scores of heat prostrations were reported. In the heat wave which swept practically the whole country from July 1st to 13th a year ago it was estimated nearly 1,500 deaths were caused by the weather in the larger cities affected. The deaths in New York at that time numbered 400. The local Weather Bureau was unable to offer assurances that a similar plague of weather might not be expected this month. "There is positively no relief in sight at present," the officials said.

Roosevelt Now Couses Uncertainty Among Speculators

(Special to Baltimore Sun).

New York, July 8.—The casting of a new hat into the ring has put a temporary damper on election betting in the financial district.

Governor Wilson is still the nominal favorite, with President Taft in second place, and, as there are no other candidates barring Eugene V. Debs, the Bull Moose gets the show position. But Colonel Roosevelt is causing some uncertainty as far as speculation is concerned, and until it can be seen how he stands it is probable that very few bets will be made.

Election day is still some five months away and bettors feel that a great many changes can take place in that time and so they are not rushing to get their money down.

Nominal quotations are about unchanged from last week. Governor Wilson is being held at 4 to 5, with the President at evens, with nothing said about Colonel Roosevelt.

He seeks the seat made vacant by the death of Senator Robert L. Taylor. Governor Hooper appointed Newell Sanders, a Republican, to fill out Senator Taylor's unexpired term.

Washington, July 9.—The Senate Committee on Library today decided to favorably report the Martin resolution to authorize the appointment of a joint committee of Congress to investigate and report on the feasibility of the government to purchase Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson. The estate now is owned by Representative Levy, of New York. The committee's action followed a hearing at which Mrs. Martin W. Littleton, wife of the Representative from New York, advocated the project.

CHILDREN NEED EXTRA CARE IN HOT WEATHER

Summer Heat Dangerous to Little Ones If Bowels Are Neglected

The mother cannot do better for her children than to train them, from infancy, to regularity of the bowels. Chronic constipation in later life can be avoided if the child learns early the need for a daily evacuation of the poisonous stomach waste.

There will, of course, be times when the little one will become constipated and billious. In hot weather, especially, immediate attention is necessary, as much serious illness results from inactive bowels. Salts, cathartics, purgatives, and similar drastic irritants are harsh and violent and only bring temporary relief while disturbing the whole system. A gentle, pleasant bowel stimulant like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is far preferable. Syrup Pepsin contains no narcotic drug, being composed of simple laxative herbs combined with pepsin, and acts gently, in a natural manner, on stomach, bowels and liver. By thoroughly cleansing the bowels and removing the foreign matter that irritates and inflames the tissues, it will quickly check the Summer diarrhoea that is so weakening in its effect.

Druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, the larger size being intended for family use. A free trial bottle, postpaid, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 406 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

THE NOMINATION OF WILSON

New York Times Pays Democratic Nominee for President Magnificent Tribute—His Fitness for the Position.

(N. Y. Times Editorial.)

In the nomination of Woodrow Wilson the Democratic party regains its ancient estate of worth, of dignity, of power. It escapes the thralldom of little men and ignoble leaders. It takes as its chief a man of that statesmanlike quality which befits the Presidential office. The nomination of Goy. Wilson will unite the party. There is not a Democrat who can find a sound and sufficient reason for withholding his vote from such a candidate. Search for the taints and blemishes, the imprints of subserviency to the selfish and the predatory, of which we have heard so much, and you will not find one of them upon Gov. Wilson. No bargain or understanding with Mr. Murphy or with Wall Street, nor with any interest, brought about his nomination. He does not owe his nomination to Mr. Bryan, nor will be he in the slightest degree under Mr. Bryan's control or guidance; he is too firm; too self-reliant, some would say too obstinate. When the legions of self-appointed advisers converge upon Trenton during the campaign, or upon Washington after the inauguration, obstinacy will be an over-present help and a distinguishing virtue. Mr. Wilson is not a radical. The radicals of the Democratic party assailed him ferociously during the campaign of the primaries. He is a progressive, and is in sympathy with the widely prevailing sentiment. He will have the support and the votes of Democrats in the Western and Far Western States. His nomination reduces Mr. Roosevelt's bolt to the proportions of a purely Republican quarrel. Gov. Wilson is an educated gentleman, he has been president of a university, his knowledge of the policy of nations and of public affairs has been broadened by diligent study, made exact by historical writing, and ripened by close observation and experience. It is a fortunate nomination, a wise nomination, the best the convention could have made.

No nominating convention in our history has presented a finer example of the triumph of individual convictions over the intrigues and the bargains of the bosses and the obstructive tactics of selfish rivals. That Wilson column in the roll call table, advancing by measured but irresistible gains, mostly of a few votes on each ballot, with only now and then a trifling loss, quickly regained, starting with 324 on the first ballot and rising above 500 on the 39th, is full of teaching and inspiration for men who are loyal to a principle, a cause, and a man. They won, they were bound to win, by their courage, their determination, and their disinterested devotion to the best interests of the party. They had no leader, they needed none, save that spirited Democracy that was common to them all.

We believe Mr. Wilson's nomination to be in the highest degree fortunate for the country. It invites, we may almost say it commands, the return of prosperity. It bids our half-famished industries take their fill of the vitalizing nourishment of activity. It quickens the sluggish currents of trade and enterprise. It does these beneficent things, first, because in the last three months we have cast out so many devils, and second, because whatever may befall on election day, a gentleman will be in the White House during the next four years, a man of sanity and balance, a man sincerely desiring the welfare of the American people, a man of sobriety and principle, not a savage or a visionary. It is the ideal condition, with a cadidate on either side under whose administration the country would be content.

Not long ago some apprehenson was felt lest Gov. Wilson was going quite too far along the progressive path. We shared that feeling curselves, and we admonished him that some of his later opinions seemed to be too much at variance with those he had formerly held and expressed. But Gov. Wilson, as we have said, is not a radical, he is a moderate progressive. "Our Constitutions have time out of mind", he said in an interview published in The Tmes last Winter, "committed us to representative government, and I have not found any thoughtful man anywhere who wanted to get rid of it." The initiative and the referendum, in his judgment, are not for everyday use. They are remedies by which the people may bring Legislatures not properly representative back under their control. And these are necessarily States questions. In that interview Mr. Wilson was asked, "Do you think that war should be made on the combinations?" He prepared this answer:

"I do not think that 'war' should be made on anything; our problem is one of equitable readjustment. I do not understand that the policy of our law was ever directed against combinations as such, against their mere size, but only against combinations in restraint of trade. Combination has proved an extremely successful means of economy and efficiency; but restraint of trade is another matter and affects the healthful operation of our whole economic system."

In other words, penalties are for those who violate the law, for those who are guilty of inexcusable wrong. Again, Gov. Wilson said:

"The whole country depends upon its business. Where will you draw the line between those who are business men and those who are not, between those whom business affects and those whom it does not affect? No one who cares for the welfare of the country as a whole can overlook or do an intentional disservice to its business men, for they are in a sense all of us. The process of tariff revision (which Gov. Wilson declared to be the main question now before the country) like everything else we have to undertake, must be a process of readjustment, not revolutionary, but carried carefully forward upon a definite principle. That principle is a tariff for revenue."

For the country the nomination made at Baltimore will be reassuring. For the Democratic party it means salvation, it means deliverance out of long boudage to delusion and heresy. That in itself, in this land where party government prevails, will be of immeasurable benefit. Both parties must be sound if they are to serve as a check the one upon the other. The Democratic party in the nomination of Gov. Wilson is reborn. It will be reorganized, it will become efficient, it will have once more the confidence of the people.

ST. PAUL'S CALLS PASTOR

Rev. F. B. Clausen, of New York City, May Succeed Rev. Dr. W. A. Snyder — Call Extended Him at Meeting Last Night.

As forecasted in The Star some days ago, the congregation of St. Paul's Lutheran church, in called session in the Luther Building, last night decided to extend a unanimous call to Rev. F. B. Clausen, pastor of the 116th Street Lutheran church, New York city, to become pastor of St. Paul's, to succeed Rev. Dr. W. A. Snyder, who leaves about the 1st of August to begin his pastorate of St. Luke's church, Brooklyn.

The meeting last night was attended by an unusuany large number and the greatest interest was manifested. Mr. L. Hanson, the president, presided, and Mr. H. L. Vollers, the secretary, kept a record of the proceedings.

Members of the congregation had heard Mr. Clausen preach when he was here about two weeks ago, and they went to the meeting last night for the sole purpose of registering their voee in favor of extending to him a unanimous call to become pastor. Mr. M. G. Tiencken introduced a resolution to the effect that the congregation of St. Paul's extend to Mr. Clausen a unanimous call to the pastorate of the church, and that he be urged to accept. A member of the congregation speaking of the matter afterward, said: "We just must have that man as our pastor to succeed Dr. Snyder."

There is no doubt that he has made a deep and lasting impression upon the congregation, and his acceptance is hoped for. Members of the congregation have assurance that he will accept, though it is by no means settled that he will come here. In the event he accepts the call, he will begin his new duties about October 1st. He will be notified at once by the secretary of the congregation that he has been called and his repy will be awaited with interest.

INTERNATIONAL OPERATIC CO

One of the Features of Star Course to Be Presented This Fall

This truly great musical organization will appear on the Star Course of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. The personnel of the company is as follows: Tekla Farm, late prima donna with Mme. Schuman-Heincke in "Love's Letters." She has gained distinction in opera, oratorio and concert work, and sings in English Swedish. German and Italian.

Rose Heidenreich, formerly a member of National Grand Opera Company, in which she achieved success and distinction. She sings in English, German and other languages.

Christian Mathison was a member for four seasons of opera companies in Sweden, Norway and Germany. He sings with equal acceptance in English Norwegian or German.

Burt McKinnie was leading baritone for years in Savange's English Grand Opera Company.

Lawrence Mueling, pianist. He has made his way by honest, persistent effort. He is the accompanist of the company.

This company gives the entire programme in English or in other tongues as the committee may elect. They appear in costumes. This company is secured at a large outlay of money, and ordinarily the cost of admission to a number of this character would more than exceed the cost of a ticket for the entire series.

The canvass for season tickets is progressing finely, and the Brotherhood will receive the commendation of the entire community on account of their furnishing to the city this series of premier attractions.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

One Road Sentence Meted Out—Other Cases Tried Yesterday.

Henry Shaver, colored, was the chief offender in the Recorder's court yesterday, drawing a sentence of six months on the county roads for an assault on a female. The negro, according to the evidence, became angry at some action of his wife and retaliated by beating her unmercifully.

Geo. Holland, colored, charged with the larceny of a pair of trousers from Mr. W. F. Wallace, was found not guilty. A case charging him with the larceny of about $6 in cash was continued. Alex. Edwards, colored, was found not guilty of an assault with a deadly weapon. Will Boykin, colored, was found guilty of assaulting Alex. Edwards with a deadly weapon in the form of a brick, and was fined $10 and costs. Geo. Allen, white, for disturbing an excursion party on the steamer Wilmington, was fined $25 and costs. Ann Eliza Brown, colored, was charged with disorderly conduct. Judgment was suspended on payment of the costs. One drunk contributed $5 and costs.

EXTENSION OF TIME.

Trash Gathering Contest Will Not End Until August 1st.

Owing to a general misunderstanding as to the closing date of the trash gathering contest conducted under the auspices of the health department and scheduled to come to an end on yesterday, it has been decided to extend the time until August 1st. The same conditions governing the contest for the past month will be observed and piles of trash will be judged by the members of the sanitary police force.

The prizes will be awarded August 1st and will consist of five prizes of $5 each. They will be awarded for the five largest piles of trash gathered in the city during the interval from June 11th to August 1st.

The health officers report that considerable interest has been manifested in the contests and that a number of large piles of trash have been gathered.

PI KAPPA PHI FRATERNITY

Annual Session Being Held at Wrightsville Beach With a Representative Attendance—Boys Enjoying Life There

With a representative attendance from all the States in which the fraternity is represented, a three-day meeting of the Pi Kappa Phi fraternity began yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in "Fraternity Hall," the annex of Hanover Inn and directly across the car tracks from the popular hostelry, where the boys are being handsomely entertained. There are about 25 young men already present with some ten more to arrive today.

"Fraternity Hall" is a place especially adapted to the purposes for which it is being used and the young men declare that they could not have secured a finer meeting place. The cottage furnishes them privacy and seclusion that could not be obtained in a hotel, and yet they are almost in arm's length of the hotel itself. Between sessions the time is most pleasantly and profitably spent in surf bathing, boating, sailing, fishing or in the enjoyment of some of the other forms of amusement and recreation at the resort. The young men expect to remain at the resort until Friday or Saturday and some were heard to say yesterday that they wished they never would have to leave, so attached had they become to the place

The fraternity is one of the youngest of the college fraternities, being only eight years old, and has not a very large membership. There are eight active chapters and no inactive ones, one in California, one in Georgia, one in North Carolina and the others are in South Carolina, which has the largest representation at the meeting. The fraternity meets biennially and no session was due to be held until next year, but the young men decided that they would like to enjoy the pleasures of Wrightsville Beach for awhile and therefore arranged for this gathering. The last regular meeting was at Columbia, S. C., last year.

The first session was held at "Fraternity Hall" yesterday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock with Mr. John D. Carroll, of Columbia, S. C., Grand Secretary, presiding. He is one of the most popular members of the fraternity. The president, Mr. L. Harry Mixon, of Charleston, S. C., is ill at some springs in Tennessee, where he has gone to recuperate, and a telegram of greetings was received from him yesterday. The vice president, Mr. Harry P. Wagener, of Charleston, was unavoidably detained at home. Mr. Simon Fogarty, of Charleston, S. C., is acting secretary of the fraternity during the meeting, having been elected to this place yesterday afternoon. The appointment of a credentials committee constituted the major portion of the business yesterday afternoon, the committee to report at the meeting this morning. The committee is composed of Messrs. Simon Fogarty, Charleston, S. C.; Dave P. Hardy, of San Francisco; Wm. H. Monckton, Jr., of Columbia, S. C.; John D. Hamer, Spartanburg; Fred S. Jones, Marion, S. C., with the acting president as ex-officio chairman. There will be two sessions today, one this morning and the other this afternoon, but there is no business of any special importance to be considered.

The feature tonight will be a banquet which will be served at the Hanover Inn. Tomorrow night the Tidewater Power Company will give a souvenir dance in honor of the visitors.

Those who had arrived up to yesterday afternoon were: John D. Carroll, Columbia, S. C.; J. H. Phinnu, Clinton, S. C.; George Howard, Jr., Tarbdro, N. C.; W. H. Monckton, Jr., Columbia; A. N. Carrigan, Society Hill; J. C. Bouy, Moore, S. C.; Simon and Wm. Fogarty, Charleston, S. C.; John D. Hamer, Spartanburg; Dave P. Hardy, San Francisco; Chester Prouty, San Francisco; R. E. and J. O. Moody and W. M. Melvin, Dillon, S. C.; W. H. Brenton, Bellville, Ga.; Fred Nichols, Nichols, S. C.; F. S. Jones and J. T. Monroe, Marion, S. C.; Wm. M. Shaw, Jr., Wilmington; J. F. Robinson, Easley, S. C.; E. B. Boyle, Sumter, S. C.; Joe Simpson, Clinton; Jas. Hamer, Dillon, S. C.

Miss Mamie Jones, of Marion, and Miss Lydia McAlister, of Greenville, S. C., arrived yesterday to attend the souvenir dance to be given Thursday night in honor of the fraternity. Miss Sadie Hewitt, of Marion, and Miss Ruth Efird, of Lexington, S. C., will arrive Thursday for the dance, and probably a few other prominent young ladies of the Palmetto State.

Sandfiddlers Won Last Night.

The Sand Fiddlers won a very closely contested game of indoor baseball at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium last night when they defeated the Clams in a 13-inning battle by the score of 14 to 10. The game was intensely interesting, as each side was scoring all the while, yet neither could obtain a lead. The game was featured by the fielding of Whitaker for the Clams and the all round fielding of the Sand Fiddlers. Cleapor and Walker formed the battery for the Sand Fiddlers, while Davis and Shepard did the honors for the Clams.

Two New Dwellings.

Permits were issued yesterday by Mr. Chas. Schnibben, building inspector, to Mr. John Rehder for the erection of two two-story frame dwellings on the east side of Fourth, between Red Cross and Campbell streets. The residences will cost about $2,500 each. Work will be commenced right away and they will be completed by Fall.

Mail Carriers Will Fly.

This is an age of great discoveries. Progress rides on the air. Soon we may see Uncle Sam's mail carriers flying in all directions, transporting mail. People take a wonderful interest in a discovery that benefits them. That's why Dr. King's New Discovery for coughs, colds and other throat and lung diseases is the most popular medicine in America. "It cured me of a dreadful cough," writes Mrs. J. F. Davis, Stickney Corner, Me., "after doctor's treatment and all other remedies had failed." For coughs, colds or any bronchial affection it's unequaled. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at R. R. Bellamy.

ENJOYABLE RECEPTION GIVEN

Largely Attended Event In Pythian Hall Last Night In Honor of Col. Walker Taylor, Grand Chancellor Commander.

One of the most enjoyable and memorable events in local fraternal circles, and one that was largely attended, was the reception given last evening by Clarendon Lodge, Knights of Pythias, to the other local lodges, in honor of Col. Walker Taylor, of this city, who was recently elevated to the office of Grand Chancellor Commander, Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, Domain of North Carolina.

The reception was attended by the largest gathering of Knights and ladies that has assembled in the Pythian Hall in some time, there being present members of all city lodges and the Delgado lodge, as well as several out-of-town Pythians.

District Deputy Grand Chancellor Irving B. Tucker, of Whiteville, presided, introducing Dr. W. C. Galloway. The latter stated the purpose of the meeting, declaring that Clarendon lodge took this means of feliciting herself and honoring one of her members who had been elevated to the highest Pythian office in the State. In closing Dr. Galloway paid high tribute to Col. Taylor, both as a Knight and as a citizen.

Col. Taylor then made a short address, in his usual happy and inspiring style. He prophecied a great growth in the district, as well as the State, for Pythianism during the coming year and reviewed the things that had been accomplished toward strengthening Pythianism at the recent meeting of the Grand Lodge at Wrightsville Beach. His talk was heard with deepest interest by all and he was heartily applauded as he finished.

Miss Mary Houston favored the gathering with one of her talented and eloquent recitals, and was applauded to the echo.

Iredell Meares, Esq., of Clarendon lodge, made a few remarks which were heard with pleasure, and Mr. Jesse Wilder, the only living charter member of Stonewall lodge, No. 1, and the eldest Pythian in point of membership in the domain of North Carolina, made a short talk which was listened to with the interest that always greets the counsel of this veteran of the ranks of Pythianism.

A large graphophone, operated by Mr. J. W. Smith, added much to the enjoyment of the evening and last, but not least, the delicious refreshments served came in for their full share of attention from those present, bringing to a close an evening that will always be pleasantly remembered by all who were present.

THE ASSOCIATED CHARITIES.

Statement and an Appeal by the President, Dr. McClure.

To All Helpers of the Needy.

Dear Friends:—The quarterly meeting of the Directors of the Associated Charities was held yesterday in the office of the secretary. There was a better attendance than usual for the Summer meeting and careful consideration was given to all phases of the work committed to us. All beneficiaries are being considered and our list cleared of any cases found undeserving. The task is not an easy one and s, therefore, the more carefully undertaken. No known worthy case is neglected and the directors ask that every case be referred to the District Superintendent, whose name can be secured by asking our secretary. She will gladly give information about cases of need or application for help. We ask that no individuals be aided without first consulting her office and that aid be given through our office. Many individuals contribute annually and some oftener to our work. We thank all such. Our present plan is to have our work supported by business firms each giving a small sum. We now ask that any who have not contributed for the current year will do so as soon as convenient. Our treasurer shows a small balance in our favor. But we ask that contributors send support money so as to increase our working balance and put us in good condition for our Fall and Winter work. We also invite conference and co-operation in our work. Our secretary will be pleased to give information. We thank all who are helping in our work and feel thankful for the many expressions of commendation. Yours for the work,

A. D. McCLURE,
President.

CHARLOTTE FOLLOWS SUIT.

War is Begun on the Surface Closet in the Queen City.

In view of the controversy over the matter here last Summer, the following item from a recent issue of the Charlotte Observer, relative to the agitation in Charlotte at the present for the abolishment of the surface closet, will be read with interest:

"By a unanimous vote the Mecklenburg Medical Society has approved Dr. J. A. Austin's ordinance compelling the placing and maintenance of an approved type of sanitary surface closet on all premises in the city where sewer connections cannot be made.

"The physicians, after considering this at their monthly meeting Tuesday night, appointed a committee of ten of their number to appear before the board of aldermen next Monday night and urge its adoption. The bill, having passed two readings without dissent, is slated for final consideration at that time. Heretofore it has not been discussed. It was the desire of its author and backers to give the councilmen and the property owners a chance to study its contents thoroughly. Then, when it is exposed to the fire of the opposition, which it is expected to withstand, there can be no claim that an attempt has been made to 'honeyfuggle the people.'

"The physicians as one man agreed that such a measure is of the highest importance in safeguarding the public health and promoting the good of the community. This is one law on which the doctors do not differ. Many property owners, especially those dwelling in their own homes, are said to heartily favor the measure, saying that the $2.50 tax a year is no consideration whatever in view of the amplified services to be rendered in return by the sanitary department."

SHOOTING AT MACOMBER'S

Alfred Hurst and Scott Murphy, Colored, In Hospital With Bullet Wounds—John Everett Said To Have Fired Shots

Alfred Hurst and Scott Murphy, colored, were shot last night about 10:15 o'clock at Macomber's station, on the suburban line to the beach, by a negro said to be John Quince Everett. Hurst was shot on the left side of the lower abdomen and seemed to be seriously injured. Murphy did not appear to be so seriously injured, as he had only a flesh wound in the right side just below the shoulder.

The two negroes were brought to Front and Princess streets on one of the cars of the Tidewater Power Company and taken from there to the James Walker Memorial Hospital in the ambulance. Murphy was able to step in unaided, but Hurst appeared to be barely conscious.

Details of the shooting were not learned last night. From the few details obtainable it seems that Hurst, who is employed on the baggage trains of the Tidewater Power Company, had just finished his work for the day and had gone to Macomber's. Here he met the Everett negro and they became involved in a quarrel about Hurst's wife, it is said. Murphy was nearby and hearing the negroes quarreling he started to walk around the house where they stood on the other side from him. As he turned the corner the negro with whom Hurst was quarreling fired several shots and one of them tooff effect in his right side. Another shot felled Hurst, the bullet entering on the left side of the lower abdomen. Murphy stated last night that he did not know the negro who did the shooting.

From Macomber's word of the shooting was telephoned to Mr. A. B. Skelding, general manager of the Tidewater Power Company, at his residence on the beach, and he immediately got in touch with the transportation department in Wilmington. Preparations were made to bring the two wounded negroes in on one of the suburban cars, and a call was sent to the James Walker Memorial Hospital to have the ambulance meet the car at 10th and Princess streets. However, when the ambulance arrived the car had already passed, proceeding to the junction. The ambulance came on to the junction and the wounded negroes were transferred to it there. Quite a crowd collected to watch the unloading of the wounded men and one white man fainted for a moment from the sight of Hurst's still form lying on the back of the platform of the car.

As the paper goes to press preparations are being made at the hospital to operate on Hurst, as his injuries are such that an operation is necessary to save his life. It was stated at the hospital last night that Murphy's wound is not serious unless blood poisoning should set in.

Everett, or the negro that did the shooting, disappeared immediately after the trouble and nothing further had been heard of him at a late hour. Deputy Sheriff A. L. Kelly had been notified of the affair and went out to investigate and if possible to locate the man who did the shooting.

Plan to Establish Colored Training School Meets With Encouragement.

Rev. M. L. Baldwin, principal of the Williston school, has revived the agitation for the establishment of an industrial training school and home of correction for the negro youth, and it is said that he has a splendid chance for success of his project. Arrangements have been made with Mr. D. L. Gore, it is said, for a tract of about 400 acres of land in East Wilmington, upon which to establish the training school. Prof. Baldwin has recently received substantial encouragement in his undertaking and he is confident that success will ultimately crown his efforts. He hopes to begin the erection of some of the buildings early in September.

Report of Negro Being Found Dead

A colored citizen reported to The Star yesterday that James Freeman, colored, had been found dead in the streets of "Dry Pond" yesterday morning about 9 o'clock by J. H. Jackson, also colored. The negro making the report seemed to know very little about the facts of the case. He said that he was a stranger here and that he did not know the name of the street on which the dead man was found. However, he declared that a doctor had been summoned and had ascertained that death resulted from natural causes. He did not know when the funeral would be held. Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner, had heard nothing of the matter when questioned last evening and the police were equally without any knowledge of a man's being found dead. Neither had any report been made to the health department.

Council Meets This Morning.

The regular weekly meeting of the City Council will be held at 9:15 o'clock this morning. The general impression is that the sewerage question, which has been hanging fire for three or four years, will be definitely settled this morning by the adoption of a resolution purchasing the existing system. The amount the city is to pay and the terms will be of most interest to the citizens of Wilmington and the figures previously given in The Star are approximately correct, it is said. The city will pay about $130,000 for the plant with $30,000 down and the remainder in 20 annual instalments of $5,000 each. Besides the sewerage question there will be other matters of interest to come up today, it is expected.

FIRE INSPECTORS ARE HERE

Members of North Carolina Fire Prevention Association Will Conduct a Thorough Inspection In This City

The North Carolina Fire Prevention Association, composed of all the special agents and inspectors of all the insurance companies doing business in the State, will make an inspection in this city today and Thursday, July 10th and 15th, and a large number of the inspectors arrived last evening. Others are looked for this morning, and it is expected that there will be over 50 members of the association here to take part in the inspection.

For its object, the association has, as its name signifies, the prevention of fires. It is said that the association has nothing to do with the question of insurance rates, but it is generally understood that the fire loss controls the rate and the reduction of the loss will necessarily bring the rate down.

The association attempts to disseminate information on the science and methods of fire prevention and extinction and to make a thorough inspection of the building in the cities and towns in North Carolina with the hope of reducing the fire waste. In other words, they try to make the people realize that "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." To accomplish this end they realize that there must be a community of interest between the buyer and seller of insurance, and their aim in visiting Wilmington is to interest the people of the city in the matter of fire prevention and the reduction of the fire loss.

One town a month is inspected by the association and good results have already been obtained in other places, the public generally taking an interest in the inspections and makink corrections asked for promptly and cheerfully.

Wilmington has a very low fire loss, but the Underwriters and, in fact, all interested, declare that that is no reason why it should not be still further reduced. It is to be hoped that the citizens will meet liberally with the inspectors and will co-operate with them in every possible way.

Some of the facts and suggestions distributed by the association in its efforts to bring about a better observance of the necessary precautions in order to prevent fires are as follows:

The fire loss in America is about $30,000 an hour and half of this is preventable. Are you doing your share to make your store and home safe?

Over 50 per cent of dwelling house fires occur from a defective flue. Possibly if you will have yours looked after and made safe it may save your home.

Gasoline is more dangerous than dynamite if improperly handled. Life and property may be saved if you will use care and judgment when it comes into your house.

Hot ashes burn up hundreds of dollars worth of property each year, yet we often hear of these ashes being deposited in wooden boxes and receptacles. Do you do it?

Fires generally originate in rubbish—are your premises clean and tidy?

A large part of the fire waste of this country is directly due to untidy conditions and other faults of management. Heavy losses naturally increase cost of insurance. A careful inspection of your entire premises daily will assist this office in bringing about a lower insurance cost.

Ashes should be kept in metal receptacles and never in paper or wooden barrels or boxes.

Oily rags or waste should be kept in standard metal waste cans and contents removed and burned each night.

Rubbish should never be allowed to accumulate in buildings.

Spittoons should be made of metal and never contain sawdust or other combustible material.

Gasoline, naptha, and other volatile oils should not be kept in building.

Gas brackets should have stiff fixtures; where necessary to use swinging brackets all exposed woodwork should be protected with sheet metal, leaving an air space. Metal bells should be placed over gas jets on low ceilings.

Steam pipes should be kept clear from all wood and other combustible material.

Open flue holes should be protected with sheet iron or better be bricked up.

Electricity, when improperly installed, is hazardous; see that your Certificate of Approval covers the entire installation; lamp cords should not be hung on nails or wrapped around any piping; paper shades should never be used.

Stove pipes should be run direct to brick chimneys and never through floors or partititons; protect floors under the above stove with brick, cement or sheet metal.

Stairways should be kept clear at all times; never place any stock or shelving on stairs.

Aisles of good width should be maintained at all times; never pile stock in front of windows or against doors, as it handicaps the firemen in case of fire.

Fire doors and shutters should be closed every night and stock should never be placed so as to hinder the ready closing of these fire stops.

See that all fire extinguishing apparatus is in good working order.

All of the above defects are charged for in your rate.

Announcement in yesterday's Star of the dance that is to be given at the Oceanic Hotel for the young people yesterday morning created much interest by the young people at the resort and they are looking forward with happy anticipation to the event. The dance will begin at 10 A. M., and last until 12, while music will be furnished by the Oceanic orchestra.

Mr. Preston Dozier, of New Orleans, La., brother of Mrs. Thos. B. Willard, of Wilmington, where he resided for awhile two years ago, will arrive the latter part of this week and spend his vacation at Wrightsville Beach. He is connected with a large cotton and brokerage firm at New Orleans and expects to sail within a few weeks for a visit to Spain and France.

About 75 visitors from Charlotte and intermediate points arrived on the Seaboard excursion yesterday, going direct to the resorts. They are quartered in the various hotels and boarding houses and all are enjoying the pleasures of Wrightsville Beach to the fullest extent. Returning the excursion will leave tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, giving the excursionists two afternoons and nights and one whole day at the resort.

Baroness Von Zieber scored a success in her concert at Lumina last night where she appeared in a song programme of three numbers. She amply sustained her reputation as being a singer of ability. Baroness Von Zieber has a fine voice which showed to advantage in the large ball room at Lumina. Every number on the programme met with hearty applause from the large audience that listened to her performance.

MR. PETTY HERE.

Charlotte Hotel Man at Wrightsville Beach—Local Project.

Mr. W. C. Petty, of Charlotte, one of the promoters of the new $200,000 commercial hotel, arrived in the city yesterday accompanied by Mrs. Petty, and went direct to Wrightsville Beach, where they are guests at the Seashore Hotel.

Mr. Petty stated to a representative of The Star last evening that there was nothing to give out as to the starting of work on the hotel. He stated that others who are interested in the project would arrive here in a few days and that a meeting to consider the matter would be held. Mr. Petty stated that the death of Mr. W. C. Jamison, of Charlotte, who was associated with Mr. Petty and the other hotel men in the local project, and who was killed in an automobile accident several weeks ago, would have no bearing on the plans in regard to the Wilmington hotel.

CUT BY FLYING GLASS.

Nephew of Mrs. N. A. Culbreth Injured in Auto Accident.

Driving her husband's Oakland runabout, Mrs. N. A. Culbreth collided with the rear end of a long piling on a wagon at corner of Third and Walnut streets yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock, with the result that her little nephew, Everett Bennett, was badly injured by flying glass from the broken windshield. Mrs. Wineberg, a guest of the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, who was with Mrs. Culbreth, received a bruised arm. The pole was thrown from the wagon and several negroes who were riding on it were also thrown off. One of them suffered a sprained ankle, but the others escaped uninjured.

The wagon was proceeding west along Walnut street and the automobile, driven by Mrs. Culbreth, was proceeding north along Third. At the intersection they came together. Mrs. Culbreth is said to have stated that the wagon halted for a moment just as it was all but past the intersection of the streets.

The force of the collision broke the windshield and smashed the brass frame around it. Otherwise the car was not damaged. The flying glass cut the little boy up rather badly and the brass frame struck Mrs. Wineberg on the arm as she threw it up to shield the child, causing a rather bad bruise. Mrs. Culbreth was also bruised and cut by the glass.

Dr. Culbreth was summoned and came to the scene at once. The little child was carried to the home of Dr. and Mrs. Culbreth, on South Fifth street. Dr. R. B. Slocum attended the child, removing a piece of glass about three-quarters of an inch long from one leg and also dressing a number of other lesser cuts. The little fellow was up last evening, though walking with a slight limp. It is expected that he will be fully recovered in a short time.

New Orleans, July 9.—Dr. Robert Sharp, a native of Lawrenceville, Va., and dean of the graduate department of Tulane University, has been elected acting president of the university. Dr. Sharp succeeds Dr. Edwin Craighead, who recently resigned to become president of the University of Montana.

COTTON MAKES ANOTHER GAIN

Public Buying Causes Advance to New High Point of the Season—Bear Pressure Sent the Prices Down Again

New York, July 9.—While less of a factor in the cotton market than yesterday, public buyers nevertheless accumulated with sufficient force around midday to advance prices up to new high levels for the season, and 23 to 24 points over last night on leading new crop positions. This was about the only public demonstration of the day, however, and from midday on the market yielded itself up to heavy unloading and bear pressure from room traders, until prices had weakened about 15 points from top, when new buuying developed at the close, causing a five point rally which left the market finally steady in tone at 7 to 11 points net advance.

The market opened firm and 5 to 12 points higher in sympathy with the strength at Liverpool and continued showers in the Central and Eastern belt.

The weekly weather report proved to be a surprise inasmuch as it failed to confirm the recent optimistic advices from Texas, while reporting better conditions in Georgia than the trade had been led to expect. Its effect on the market, however, was small, although undoubtedly hereafter the Texas news will be regarded with more than usual interest, particularly by the bulls. An impression, gathered from the weather map today, that more settled and clearing conditions might be expected in the Eastern belt, had some influence with quotations 15 points higher and a good inquiry for cotton in the local stock, about 20,000 bales of which has already been sold, and is awaiting shipment for New England mills and export.

Receipts, 2,748 bales, against 3,311 last week, and 1,037 last year. Today's receipts at Galveston, 1,639, against nil last year; at New Orleans, 136, against 490 last year, and at Houston, 16 against 43 last year.

Spot closed steady. Middling uplands, 12.30; do. gulf, 12.55; sales, 78 bales.

TRADING IN STOCKS LIGHT

In Early Part of Session Many Stocks Recovered from Weakness, but In Latter Dealings List Sold Off

New York, July 9.—In the early part of today's market session many stocks made pronounced recovery from the weakness manifested yesterday, but in the later dealings the list sold off to a level where most gains were replaced by net losses. Trading was much lighter than on the preceding day, but obviously no less professional. Some fear was shown regarding the money situation, this feeling being slightly justified in the higher rate demand for call accommodations. Copper shares, which were among yesterday's heaviest features, were appreciably stronger today, the best prices following the publication of the copper producers' statement for June, disclosing a further decrease in the supply, due chiefly to reduced production. This favorable feature of the statement was offset, however, by a decided reduction in both domestic and foreign demand.

The bond market was steady, with total sales, par value, aggregating $1,970,000. United States government bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales, 358,000 shares.

After all doctors failed

These "hopeless" blood-diseases were cured by B.B.B.

"Your B.B.B. has cured me of a blood disease that my physicians pronounced hopeless and beyond the reach of human help", writes Mrs. W. L. Cury of Little Rock, Ark. "Four bottles of B.B.B. completely cured me. I feel like a new woman".

"I tried nine doctors for an ulcer in my head and ears", writes Mrs. S. Story of Fredonia, Ala. "But none could cure me. This ulcer ate away the small bones of my mouth. I could scarcely eat or talk. My case was pronounced hopeless. But I tried B.B.B. and was cured. I am now strong and healthy. I am 63 years old, and able to walk a mile any time".

Your case is not "hopeless". Don't you believe it. Just go to your druggist and tell him you want a bottle of B.B.B. If he hasn't it in stock he will get it for you. Don't take no for an answer. Don't put up with any so-called substitute. There is no real substitute. Insist on B.B.B.

Your money back if it fails to help you.

STATE COMMITTEE ELECTS C. A. WEBB

point pollholders, one for each candidate for Senator, that the candidates provide their own tickets to be the size of the tickets for Congressman, and for the returns of the primary to be made November 7th to the County Committees and forwarded to Raleigh where a sub-committee of the State Committee would canvass the returns November 14th, and report to the full State Committee on the night of November 14th, when the nominee would be declared or a second primary ordered.

Judge J. Crawford Biggs, as a friend of Governor Kitchin's candidacy, took exception to a number of the features of the proposed rules which he intimated had been prepared by one candidate for the Senate or his friends and offered a resolution that the resolutions be referred to a special committee of friends of each candidate and reported back for adoption at an adjourned meeting July 23rd. Later in a heated discussion he admitted that he referred to Senator Simmons as having either written the rules or having had certain friends to prepare them.

Walter Clark, Jr., as manager for the campaign of his father, joined in the effort for postponing adoption.

R. H. Hayes and other members of the committee insisted that the committee should not be required to make another trip to Raleigh over the rules.

R. H. Hackett declared that all candidates and their friends had full notice that the rules would be considered tonight. He said one candidate, "Kitchin," was out on his personal campaign and could have been here. That he spoke in Wilkesboro last night, and Hayes made the point that any member of the committee could have offered rules for adoption. Mr. Warren resented with considerable heat insinuations that he did not prepare the rules he offered. Hon. Francis Winston protested against any impugning of the motives of Democrats and insisted that members of the committee were here to act for the best interests of the party, and not to further the interests of any special candidate for the Senate or take any hand in partisan politics inside of Democratic party lines. He offered a substitute motion that a committee of five be appointed, one friend of each candidate and the chairman and secretary of the committee to go over the rules offered and revise for final adoption by the State Committee. A recess of one hour to be taken for the committee to do this work.

Chairman Webb appointed E. L. Travis for Gov. Kitchin; Walter Clark, Jr., for Judge Clark, and A. D. Watts, for Senator Simmons. The State Committee took a recess to 11:15 to await the report of the special committee.

Thousand Island Park Swept by Disastrous Fire.

Watertown, N. Y., July 9—Thousand Island Park was swept this afternoon and tonight by a disastrous fire which wiped out practically the entire business section, the Columbian Hotel, the New York State educational building and 87 cottages. The loss, it is estimated, will be approximately $500,000. No lives were lost.

The fire started at 1 o'clock this afternoon and burned for more than eight hours. The blaze spread with amazing rapidity, fanned by a strong wind. The hotels and cottages of the fashionable resort were filled with Summer guests, many of whom had to vacate so hurriedly that they lost practically all their belongings.

The resort was one of the most popular on the St. Lawrence river and was having a busy and successful season.

EXPUNGED FROM RECORDS

Charges Against Mrs. Young Aired at Educational Association

Chicago, July 9.—Open charges that at the convention at Boston two years ago when Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, superintendent of Chicago schools, was elected president, the rolls were "stuffed;" that teachers were enrolled as active members credited from Chicago schools when they lived in other States, and that their dues were paid by Chicago principals to insure more votes for Mrs. Young, were voted upon by the National Education Association today.

The board of directors adopted unanimously a resolution that all reference to the charges should be "expunged from the records without impugning the motives or impeaching the character of any one." It was the intention that the whole subject should be wiped out of future discussion and speeches were made that "the utmost harmony now prevails in the association and it was the sense of the meeting that no conscious wrong entered into the election of Mrs. Young. At the same time it was declared Secretary Erwin Sheppard, who made the charges, was not guilty of any misstatements when he referred to the violation of certain technicalities at the Boston election.

Secretary Sheppard today attempted to sustain his charges. He asserted that before the Boston convention, an organization known as the Chicago Principals' Club, set out to promote Mrs. Young's candidacy. He charged that many persons were enrolled as active members credited from Chicago schools, when in fact, lived in other States and were not connected with Chicago schools.

Altogether, he asserted 86 votes were obtained from persons who had been thus enrolled. He quoted letters from Milwaukee and New Orleans in which persons, whose names were withheld, professed to have been paid by Chicago teachers for joining as active members and voting for Mrs. Young.

William B. Owen, principal of the Chicago Teachers' College; Miss Ida Mighell and Etta Q. Gee, Chicago's school principals, asserted that the Chicago teachers did furnish some money to pay the dues of active members and that some of the active members thus made did live in other States. They denied, however, that the members were credited to Chicago schools and said there had been no intention of committing fraud.

It finally was agreed that the discussion should cease and on motion of James Y. Joyner, Raleigh, N. C., it was unanimously decided that the matter be expunged from the records.

AMERICANS HELD UP.

Consul Held in Railroad Office by Mexican Rebels.

Juarez, Mexico, July 9.—Twenty-five Americans, including American Consul Thomas D. Edwards, were held in the office of the Mexican Northwestern Railroad here tonight for nearly two hours while an armed guard of rebels prevented them from leaving the building.

Rebels officers had become angered at the officers of the Mexican Northwestern because of the alleged worthlessness of a $5,000 check payable to the rebels as an export duty on a consignment of gold ore by the American Smelting & Refining Company in Chihuahua.

American Consul Edwards went to the Northwestern offices to confer with H. C. Ferris, general manager of the road, Thomas Ryan, traffic manager, and C. T. Carson, general auditor.

The officials were in conference at 5 o'clock when they suddenly found the doors of the building surrounded by armed men. In the same building were the offices of the Water-Pierce Oil Company, but the American employes of that firm were not permitted to leave at the usual hour.

American Consul Edwards from within the building telephoned for Col. Pascual Orozco, Sr., head of the garrison, who ordered the guards to release all minor employes.

The officers of the road were held. After a brief conference the American consul left, but the railroad officials were closeted with Orozco for some time. Finally at 7 o'clock the railroad men also were given their liberty and crossed to the American side. It was stated they had agreed to make the check good. The Mexican Northwestern is owned by British capital.

MONOPOLIES CONTROL SALT.

Condition Exists in Nearly All Civilized Countries.

Washington, July 8.—Common salt, one of the cheapest and most widely distributed necessities on the face of the earth, is controlled in most important civilized countries by monopolies, according to a monograph, "Foreign Salt Market and Industry," just issued by the Bureau of Manufactures of the Department of Commerce and Labor. Monopoly of the product is made possible by the fact that in nearly every country the raw salt must be refined before it is fit for use, and the refining process often involves considerable expense.

In England a concern known as the Salt Union, Limited, controls about 90 per cent. of the total amount used. Efforts made to sell salt in opposition to it have met with little success. In France 22 mines are in a combination, which produce one-half of the amount used in that country. These organizations determine the price to the retailers. In Mexico a single company handles the bulk of the salt business. The government exercises a monopoly of the salt trade in Ecuador, Peru, Venezuela, Italy, Roumania, Austria-Hungary, Switzerland, Servia, Turkey, Greece, China, Cochin-China and Japan.

American salt is being sold in increasing quantities abroad. Its chief competitor is the English salt, which has penetrated to every corner of the globe.

The deposits of salt in Chili are almost limitless. One bed covers 200 square miles. Its depth is estimated at 300 feet, much of which is 99 per cent. pure. This deposit contains 3,000,000,000 tons and covers but a small portion of the salt deposits in that country. In America the salt deposits are in Kansas, Louisiana and Michigan.

Norfolk, Va., July 9.—James Wilson Beasley, one of the few surviving members of Mahone's Brigade, and one of the best known men in Norfolk, died this afternoon at his home in this city. He was 71 years old.

PROHIBITION CONVENTION.

Movement Started for More Practical Politics—Several Candidates.

Convention Hall, Atlantic City, N. J., July 9.—A Presidential nomination boom, based on a new issue that would substitute practical politics for "church politics," in the prohibition movement, was started here tonight on the eve of the Prohibition National Convention. Finley D. Hendrickson, of Cumberland, Md., was launched as a candidate for the prohibition Presidential nomination by the Maryland delegation, which will appeal for his selection as the party standard bearer on a broad platform, especially urging that there be more earnest appeal for votes outside the churches and that less of the energy of the party be expended in "howling for the church vote."

Mr. Hendrickson, who is a member of the Prohibition party executive committee, is a strong advocate of more practical politics in the Prohibition movement.

The Maryland delegation appointed a special campaign committee to urge Mr. Hendrickson's nomination, the committee being headed by Edwin Higgins, of Baltimore. The entrance in the Presidential race of Mr. Hendrickson probably will result in the elimination of Joshua Levering, of Baltimore, prohibition Presidential candidate in 1896, who had been mentioned as a probability this time. His friends asserted today that he did not wish his name to go before the convention. Another tangible boom for the party ticket was precipitated at a reception to the delegates today, when the Massachusetts delegation arrived with friends and banners proclaiming "Chafin and Watkins for 1912," the party ticket in 1908. Eugene Chafin, of Illinois, was the Presidential nominee and Aaron S. Watkins, Vice-Presidential nominee in the preceding campaign, and many are urging their renomination. At the present time Hendrickson and Chafin are the leading Presidential candidates.

Neary a thousand delegates to the convention had arrived tonight and Music Hall on the steel pier will be taxed to its capacity when National Chairman Charles R. Jones calls the convention to order tomorrow morning and presents Clinton Howard, of Rochester, as the National committee's selection for temporary chairman. Dr. Samuel Dickey, president of Albion College, is taked of tonight as the probable permanent chairman of the convention.

SCHOOL FOR FEEBLE MINDED.

Soon Ready at Kinston, N. C.—Cases From Harnett—Insurance.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 19.—State Senator J. R. Baggett, who was one of those who gave special support for the bill to establish the North Carolina School for Feeble Minded that was passed by the last Legislature, and is a member of the board of trustees for this institution, says excellent progress is being made on the new buildings at Kinston and that the institution will be opened about November 1st, with a capacity of nearly 200. The three buildings that are being constructed as the nucleus for the plant are now up to the second story and the contractors are pushing the work. Dr. Ira Hardy, who introduced the bill in the Legislature and led the fight for its passage, is to be the superintendent.

Judge Ferguson, who is holding a criminal term of Superior Court here, has granted an injunction in the case of Hockaday vs McLeod, from Harnett county, in which McLeod is restrained until further hearing, from cutting timber on over 400 acres of timber land, title to which is in dispute.

Application is made to Judge Ferguson for the appointment of a receiver for the estate of M. E. Tinnin, of Lillington. The appointment of the receiver is being urged by J. R. Baggett for the creditors.

Commissioners of Insurance James R. Young left today for Detroit to deliver an address Friday before the National Convention of Fire Marshals. He goes then to Spokane for the annual convention of the National Convention of Commissioners of Insurance. He is scheduled for addresses at both conventions and has important committee connections in the convention of insurance commissioners at Spokane.

THREE DIE IN ELECTRIC CHAIR

Two Italians and Negro Executed in Quick Succession at Ossining

Ossining, N. Y., July 9.—Three men—Giuseppe Cirolli, George Williams, a negro, and Santa Zanza—were put to death in the electric chair in quick succession at Sing-Sing prison this morning in the order named. All were convicted murderers.

Cirolli walked to the chair with head erect and knelt in prayer just before he was seated for his doom. The other two men showed less composure. Zanza had to be carried to the chair.

Zanza was one of a band of six Italians convicted of the murder of Mrs. Mary Hall, wife of Henry Hall, a superintendent of construction on the Croton Aqueduct, in a lonely farmhouse at Griffins Corners, Westchester, on November 9th, 1911. His five companions in crime are to be executin the week of August 12th. In a letter to Governor Dix Zanza confessed the actual murder of Mrs. Hall, but claimed he was aided by others.

We are growing more humane than we ever were before. We are trying to draw up and out from our own cramping environment, and we are trying to draw others with us. The Brotherhood of Man has never been such a strong institution in the history of the world as it is today. We don't "give alms to the poor." We do vastly more. We help our less fortunate brother with whom we brush elbows in the day's work. We give him a smile, a pat on the shoulder and understanding word, and it helps vastly more than "alms." Then, too, we do deeper than the condition, find and remedy the cause. There are the prison reform, the civic government reform, the Associated Charities; well, there are a thousand things to be indicated that the world is growing better all the time!

BANK EXAMINERS IN SESSION.

Samuel M. Hann, of Baltimore, Reads a Paper.

New York, July 9.—Seventy-five national and State bank examiners, at their annual convention at Brighton Beach today, joined in a telegram to Lawrence O. Murray, Comptroller of the Currency, at Washington, declaring "the results of your progressive ideas of co-operation are exemplified in this splendid meeting of 75 examiners. We heartily congratulate you, and regret your absence."

Two sessions were held, presided over by Frank L. Norris, national bank examiner of Philadelphia. Several formal papers were read and a number of subjects of interest to bankers and examiners discussed.

Among those who read papers were Samuel M. Hann, national bank examiner for Baltimore and Washington, who said that while all examiners realize that "so far as defalcations are concerned, the present system of bank examination does not offer an absolute protection against loss," every examiner should at least follow the rules and regulations provided by the Comptroller's office.

Frank L. Norris, national bank examiner and chairman of District 3, of Philadelphia, presented a paper on "National Bank Examination and the Fee System."

There was discussion of the handicaps under which national bank examiners work in the country district. The need for action to increase the compensation and assist national bank examiners in such districts was pointed out by a number of speakers.

CHARLES MEEKINS DROWNS.

Son of I. M. Meekins Loses Life in Albemarle Sound.

Elizabeth City, N. C., July 9.—Chas. Meekins, the eight-year-old son of Col. I. M. Meekins, assistant district attorney for Eastern North Carolina here, and a prominent Republican politician, was drowned from the steamer Eva in Albemarle Sound today at noon. Col. Meekins and his 14-year-old son, William, made heroic efforts to save the life of the boy and were themselves rescued by a life boat from the steamer just in time to prevent their drowning.
